Roundup

Boise, Idaho, Monday, March 3, 1952

Performances to Be This Week

The BJC A Capella Choir presented a special performance of Bach to Boogie for the American Railroad Development Association in the auditorium last Wednesday. It was more-or-less a dress rehearsal for the big performances this week on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Admission to students will be upon presentation of the activity tickets at the door and regular admission will be 74c.

Vesper Services Presented Sunday

The Boise Junior College vesper services were presented Sunday afternoon in the college auditorium.

Featured soloists for this concert were John H. Best, cellist, and Eleanor Snodgrass, pianist. Numbers by Miss Snodgrass included Intermezzo Opus 118, No. 1, by Brahms; Impromptu in C flat major by Schubert; Etude, Opus 2, No. 6, by Henselt; Trapeze Artists, by Turina; The Three Maries—Alnitah, Alnilam, and Mintiki, by Uilla-Lobos; and Capriccio in F minor by Donany.

Mr. Best's part of the program included Sonata in A major, Opus 69—Allegro, Scherzo, Andante, and Allegro Vivace—by Beethoven. Mr. Best was accompanied by Katherine Best.

BJC Teacher Gets Strange Welcome

Miss Hazel Roe, BJC Secretarial Science instructor, was absent from school for a number of days last week. The reason—she recently broke her foot when she turned her ankle—as she stepped on a foot mat upon which appeared the words WELCOME.

Cauldron Club Plans Dinner on Campus

Members of the Cauldron Club along with their wives are having a steak dinner at the Boise Junior College Student Union dining room on Tuesday, March 11. After the dinner, there will be a program in the Student Union ballroom, in which BJC students will take part.

The program is as follows: A dance (ballet) by Dorla Hogenmiller, accompanied by La Rae Dunn; two vocal solos by Myrtle Bebe, accompanied by La Rae Dunn; Gay Nineties in Song by Ruth Pond, accompanied by Fred Bortler; a demonstration of ballroom dancing by Don Luce and Dorla Hogenmiller; and a Message of the Evening by Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, who will speak on the topic "Student Personalities that Meet in Daily Life."

After the program there will be a conducted tour of Morrison and Driscoll Halls for the club members and their wives.

Art Instructors Exhibit Works

Catherine Evans Vasquez and Dean Conan Matthews, BJC art instructors, are now showing some of their water colors at the Clay Club in Moscow, Idaho. They are also exhibiting some oils at an art show sponsored by the Women Painters of Washington in Gooding. Each has three oils at this show.

Mrs. Vasquez, who recently returned from a trip to the Virgin Islands, is also exhibiting some water colors done on her trip at the Elks Lounge here in Boise.

BJC Graduate Gains from Work Here

Ferris Weddle, Boise Junior College graduate of 1949, now attending the University of Washington, writes that he is busy writing short stories. He says that he is selling a lot of western type stories and has just sold an article on longhorns—the background for which he obtained in his research paper here at Boise Junior College.

New BJC Catalog Ready This Week

From the office of W. L. Gottenberg, Director of Student Affairs and Publications, comes the word that the new 1952-53 Boise Junior College catalog should be off the press the latter part of this week. The catalog contains all information about the college, what courses are offered, etc. Mr. Gottenberg stated that this year the catalog is coming out earlier than it has in past years. It will be available to all students.

College Sports Day Planned By WAA

The WAA is planning the annual College Sport Day which will be held here in May. Four Southern Idaho colleges are invited to join BJC. They are Idaho State, Ricks College, College of Idaho and Northwest Nazarene College. Highlights of the program are the softball games and the banquet that evening.

Officials are needed to umpire softball. Anyone interested should see Miss Catherin or drop a note in Box 25.

The tennis courts are being painted and permanent steel nets put up. They will be ready for use March 3rd.

CLUBS RECEIVE MONEY FOR WORK IN FOOTBALL SEASON

Donate Your Pint Of Blood Today

Today is the day the Bloodmobile comes to Boise Junior College. From 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. this afternoon, the Red Cross people will have their equipment set up in the Student Union banquet room, and all those who have signed pledge cards and turned them in will go there to donate their pints of blood.

The Intercollegiate Knights, who are sponsoring the Bloodmobile's stop here, will give free tomato and orange juice, and coffee to the blood donors after they have donated their blood.

So, let's all go over to the Student Union banquet room before 2 p.m. this afternoon, if you have not already done so, and give your blood for a real worthy cause.

Anyone who has not signed a pledge card but is over 21 years of age may donate—so, let's everybody do it! Give a pint and save a life!

B-CUBES RECEIVE TOP AMOUNT

At their regular meeting last Monday, the Student Executive Board divided up among the various clubs the concession money received from the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which the Chamber earned through selling concessions during the football season.

The following are the amounts received by the various clubs for the work they did in operating the stadium during football season:

Pi Sigma Sigma	$ 63.52
IK's	78.92
B-Cubes	144.20
Ski Club	7.70
Valkyries	46.20
I. R. C.	36.57
Delta Psi	1.92
F. T. A.	15.40
Spanish Club	5.77

Total$400.00

Student Body President Bob Bakes said during the meeting that this was a good example to all clubs of the value of putting forth effort in the fall to operate the stadium. The various clubs are paid in accordance with the effort they have put forth.

Ambitious Students Here at BJC

It seems that students at Boise Junior College just can't seem to get enough subjects to study here at the college. Anyhow, it sure looks that way, because several BJC students are going over to the College of Idaho every Tuesday and Thursday afternoons to get in additional classes!

Who are these ambitious lads and lassies? Don Bagley, Madeline Hannah and Francis Yarosky, who are taking an illustration course from Mr. Hart, art instructor at C. of I., who taught are here last semester in absence of Catherine Evans Vasquez.

Oratorical Contest Winners Selected

The finals of the Bob Fifer Oratorical contest were held last Wednesday afternoon in the Ad building here at the college. The winners, the topics, and the prizes were as follows: First prize, Paxton Child, "Latin America Is Our Indispensable Source of Supply," $15; second prize, Cleon M. Kotter, "We Are Our Brothers Keeper," $10; third prize, Norman Clark, "Have You Forgotten the United Nations?" $5; and fourth prize, Dorothy Chatburn, "A Year of Study Abroad for College Students," $2.50.

Judges for the contest were Mrs. George Bowditch, Mrs. Ada

Notice!

Due to a scarcity of reporters on The Roundup Staff, it is very difficult to get all the news about clubs. So, any club wanting items or news about their organization to appear in The Roundup, please leave their items in the wire basket in Mr. Gottenberg's office by Wednesday of each week. Thank you!

P. Burke and Mr. J. B. Webb. The speeches were judged on the basis of material, organization and delivery. This is the third year the contest has been held, and the money for the prizes has been furnished the three years by Mr. Bob Fifer, electric appliances.

The "Big Show" Is Coming

This Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the Boise Junior College Choir gives their annual Bach to Boogie show. Ever since Bach to Boogie first started, it has been the "BIG SHOW" of the year at the college—one which is eagerly awaited by a great many people, both Boiseans and others.

Choir students put out all their efforts to make this show a success—they really work hard at it. So, even before the show, let's congratulate Director Jim Jewell and his entire production staff on accomplishing the gigantic job of putting together the whole show. With all the worrying, sleepless nights and work which have been put on it, the Bach to Boogie show HAS to be good.

CLUB CAPERS Driscoll Hall

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club will meet Monday, March 3, in Morrison Hall at 7:30 p.m. with Mr. Gottenberg showing colored slides on Saltillo, Mexico, and Oliviero Ruiz giving explanations in Spanish. Refreshments will be served at close of the meeting.

F. T. A.

The regular meeting of the Future Teachers of America will be held this noon. Miss Genevieve Dart, a member of the B.H.S. faculty, will be guest speaker. She will speak on the classroom teacher Department of Professional Organization.

INTERCOLLEGIATE KNIGHTS

A smoker was held Thursday evening for all the new pledges, who are: Lynn Elwood, Leland Fowler, John Benson, Gayle Davis, Don Fulkerson, Dick Wolde, Bruce Williams, Jack Garro, Phil Bocking and Bob Donneley.

B-CUBES

The B-Cubes have been at it again—they sold popcorn, candy, gum and soda pop at the Harlem Globetrotters' game, and, incidentally, made a very nice profit.

At their last meeting they nominated Helen Hall, JoAnn Hartzler and Jessie May McQueen for their entrants in the Elks' National Leadership Scholarship.

Plans for the Cotton Swing, to be held in April, are now getting underway. It's really going to be a big affair—and you boys had better start using your influences on those gals now so you'll be sure to be in on the fun.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN

After sponsoring a very successful Sweethearts' Ball, the Associated Women's Council is now looking for ways to raise money for a $50 scholarship for some freshman girl. A rummage sale is being planned under the chairmanship of Laura Lyman, who urges all BJC students to contribute anything they wish to help make this money-making project a success. A carton will be found in Mrs. Burke's office to hold the various items.

By Wayne Personette

A group of boys from Driscoll Hall composed themselves into a basketball team last week and took on the Albertson team as a preliminary to the BJC-NNC game. This turned out to be a good game, with everyone having a "rough" time before the final buzzer, but to the sad dismay of the Driscoll team, they were on the short end of a 47-36 score.

The boys in Driscoll are planning for a semi-formal dance to be held on March 22 in the ballroom. This dance is to be for residents of the Hall and their dates.

At a later date the boys are sponsoring a Smoker to be held in the dormitory for the Faculty Men of the college. This will be for "men only" for sure.

Morrison Hall

By Shaff

March 16 has been set for the date of the Morrison Hall tea for parents and special guests of the residents of the Hall. The tea is to be in the living room from 3 to 5 o'clock. There will also be an open house for the guests.

Miss Bonnie Johnston, freshman from Homedale, is general chairman for the tea. Barbara Moulton, refreshments, with Marilyn Bishop, Lucille Spackman, Donna Wood and Dortha Bretz; Gloria Johnston, invitations, with Charlie and Mary McCollum; Margaret Bailey, decorations with Bonnie Cady, Delores Coffman and Madelon Hannah; Billy Lou Mieser, receiving line, with Virginia Worley; Peggy Wood, clean up, with Diane Huschke and Dorla Hogenmiller.

A semi-formal dance is also being planned. The dance is to be April 12 for Morrison Hall girls and their dates. Barbara Moulton is general chairman for this affair.

Charlie Brown

Call Charlie

By Cleon M. Kotter

Need a light globe replaced, a window put in, a door oiled, a shelf built, or a chair fixed? Just call Charlie, BJC's handyman since this institution first came into being back in 1936.

One cannot recount the birth and growth of the college without fitting Charlie Brown, a native of Iowa, into the picture. Even as the college has become a definite part of him, occupying the most of his waking hours, so likewise has Charlie and his devotion to duty been an inseparable part of the college.

With nearly two decades of service as head caretaker behind him, Charlie tells us that the biggest kick he has received has been watching this school grow out of what once was practically desert. "It makes you feel kinda good," he says, "to know that you have had a hand in it."

The fifteen students employed part-time on the campus marvel at Charlie's efficiency and fairness. His years of work at BJC have even won him the secret admiration of the faculty members. One of them referred to Charlie as the all around handy man. To illustrate his point, this faculty member told about the time he was planning a fishing trip but couldn't find any fishing worms at home. He asked if Charlie knew where any worms might be found. To his surprise Charlie handed him a can of worms the next morning which he had dug in the school garden that night. "That's just the way he has been in everything," this faculty member said. "If anything needed fixing one merely had to mention it and Charlie would be right on the job, often working way into the night to have it all ship-shape the next morning. He even at one time ran a lost and found service for the students. The expression became common throughout the school, 'ask Charlie.'"

Snap! Crackle! Pop! FOUR!

Last week a couple of BJC boys took a trip to Mt. Home. From the looks of things in Mt. Home, Frank Teverbaugh and John Wood-al better return.

Jim Lynch has a big flame. Can you guess who she is?

This question has come to my attention. What was Jessie May McQueen doing leaning over a chair in Spanish class last week?

It seems DD got left in the lurch last Saturday night waiting for his car. I guess Jerry McDaniels was out pulling Sweet Violets.

It never pays to let someone else take your car. I wonder why someone besides Sherman Snyder was driving his car a week ago Saturday night.

Well, Doc Obee, what should we do? Try to outrun them or wait till we have them outnumbered?

Yes, I said FOUR. This year we have four of the best golfers in the state enrolled at BJC. The boys are: Bob Stanwood, Ed Cole, Ed Hedges and Bruce Williams. All lettered in high school golf competition and if they are given a chance to meet other teams this year I'm sure they will bring in the trophies for BJC.

We have the players and players have the desire to organize a team. All we need now is a little backing from the school. If you get this backing, watch the paper for I'm sure you will see a lot of the BIG FOUR.
