Spring Formal To Be This Friday

This Friday, April 4, has been set for the Spring Formal. The dance is to be in the Student Union ballroom at 9:00 with Judy Salter and her orchestra to furnish the music. Refreshments can be had at the fountain. Admission will be one activity ticket per couple.

The social committee has chosen "Garden in the Rain" for the theme of this dance and plans are underway for some extra special decorations under the supervision of Betty Feeney Griffin.

Invitations have been sent to the mayor and the governor. Also on the invitation list are senior class officers, student body presidents and principals of all high schools of Ada County. There will be approximately 100 students in Boise on April 4 for a Youth Conference, and they have also received invitations to attend this dance. The social committee requests that all college students attending this dance please be very friendly to these high school students. Show them a good time so they will all want to come to Boise Junior College next year. Let them see how much fun we have at our dances.

Don't forget, ALL you fellows, this Friday. Ask a girl and come. This dance will be one of the nicest dances of the year and everyone should be there.

German Lady to Be Interfaith Speaker

Rose Marie Schmold of Stuttgart, Germany, brought to this country by the Voice of America, will speak at a fireside meeting of the Inter-Faith Council, in the Morrison Hall lounge here at the college Monday evening, April 7, at 7:30 p.m. Her talk promises to be very interesting, and all those interested in the meeting are invited to attend.

Filer Students Visit College

Friday noon, March 21, a big Greyhound bus rolled up in front of the Student Union. Out of it came fifteen girls, eleven boys and two instructors, representing the senior class of Filer high school, Filer, Idaho. They were taking a "sneak day" from school to come to Boise and look over the Boise Junior College.

Waiting to greet the visitors were reception committees from the respective dormitories who escorted the groups to their rooms and then to the Union for lunch.

During the afternoon, conducted tours of the campus and buildings were held with local students acting as guides. Dinner was served at six o'clock in the new section of the dining hall with our visitors as guests.

For early evening entertainment, films of the 1950 Junior Rose Bowl game and a musical film, "Naughty Marietta," were shown in the recreation room of Driscoll Hall, while a tour of the city was conducted for others more interested in sight-seeing. That evening, a scheduled Union Nite dance was held in the ballroom, with both BJC and Filer students attending.

At midnight the dance dismissed local students to their homes and the visitors to the dormitories, where they were entertained and served refreshments before calling it a day.

Choir Practices for Tour

The BJC choir is diligently practicing these beautiful warm days on the music for their spring tour which is to be April 21 and 22. They will tour McCall, New Meadows, Cascade and Weiser. They will spend the night at McCall in Shore Lodge.

B-Cubes Cotton Swing April 18

Friday, April 18—that's the big date. For what? Why, the B-Cubes Cotton Swing, of course. The theme? That's for you to guess from the hints that will be found all over the halls from now on. The gals chose it last Wednesday and, believe us, it's something very new and original.

The committee chairmen for the dance are Rosalie Hartwell and Danny Nielson, decorations; Janet Austad and Lenette Gilster, orchestra; Terry Wagstaff and Joan Hartzler, intermission; Marlene and Welles Henderson, invitations; Zuriel Elvin and Gina Harris, publicity; Helen Hall and Sue Freeman, programs; Carolee Brady and Marian Watson, refreshments, Mary Deroin and Mary Salazar, floor and door; and Carma Murdoch and Jean Fisher, theme.

The dance will be held in the Union ballroom, with music by Judy Salter's orchestra. Because this is leap year and the dance is sponsored by a girls' organization, they're the ones who'll do the asking. It's open to all BJC gals, so come on now, gals, don't be shy, let's all get out and get a guy!

IRC Banquet Held Last Week

The International Relations club at BJC held their annual banquet in the ballroom Thursday evening, March 20. Approximately thirty club members (all of the fair sex) along with Drs. Moore and Baker were in attendance at the banquet to enjoy the remarks of the guest speaker, Mrs. Nelson, a Scottish born English war bride.

Mrs. Nelson served as an ambulance driver during the London bombings. It was there she met her future husband, a lieutenant in the armed forces of the United States. After a brief acquaintance of nine days they were engaged before he shipped out. Three years later they met again and were married. Together they traveled through a number of the European countries. The theme of Mrs. Nelson's talk was that though the peoples of different countries may do things in different ways, in-

Elections to Be Held April 18

Petitions for next year's student body officer candidates will be posted in the main hall of the Administration building from April 7 to 10. These petitions, before they are signed by students, must be signed by the registrar, certifying the candidate's eligibility, determined by his grade average, which must be a C or above. After certification by the registrar, the petition must be signed by 25 qualified student voters.

These petitions must be turned in to Mr. Gottenberg's office by April 10.

Elective offices are: president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and sophomore representative.

The elections will be held on April 18, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. An election assembly will be held before the election, at a date to be announced later.

A quizzical expression came over the deacon as he read the drug store menu. "Say, boy," he called the soda jerker, "I know all about Shrove Tuesday, Ash Wednesday, and Good Friday, but what is Nut Sunday?"

side we are all pretty much the same.

If activity in the I.R.C. is an accurate basis for judging, the fems of BJC are the most internationally minded. Membership meetings and other activities show a decided lack of the masculine element.

The Intercollegiate Knights have put away their old white sweaters with their emblems on them for brand new blue jackets with orange trim and emblems. The jackets arrived last week and every one has worn theirs ever since. They are nice, though, don't you think? Front row: Ernest Charlton, Barbara Moulton, Bill Gottenberg, Ina Routson, Steve Hadley, Ray Baptie. Second row: Joe Garro Sherman Snyder, Gary Collet, Phil Bocking, Gale Davis. Third row: Bruce Williams, Colin Taylor, Oliverio Ruiz. Fourth row: Colin Taylor, Chad White, Dean Hodges, Dick Wilde, Don Bagley, Don Briant, Rex Frazer, Bob Donnelly. Spring Fever and Sick Grades

Spring has sprung—yes, at last, spring is here. And quite a few of BJC's students seem to be getting spring fever. And, guess what? The classes seem to be getting smaller. Hmm—could there be some connection? Spring fever and small classes seem to be two things which go hand in hand. However, let's remember that fever many times spells sickness—and too many "cut" classes many times spell "sick" grades.

CLUB CAPERS American Friends Speaker to Visit

PHI SIGMA SIGMA
The Phi Sigs held a smoker for their pledges last Thursday night at Don Erwin's house. The smoker consisted of card games and art movies. Weiners and cokes were served for refreshments.

I.K.'s
The night of March 21, 1952, will long be remembered by the I.K. pledges. The informal initiation was held on that dark evening and the motto of the I.K.'s was firmly embedded upon the minds of the pledges.

However, the horror of the informal initiation was forgotten last Thursday night as the period of the pledge ended and the life of the Knight began.

The majority of the I.K.'s will leave Wednesday for Moscow. The national convention will be held there April 3, 4 and 5.

DESERET (L.D.S.)
An ice cream and cake party will be held by the Deseret club at the home of Mr. Z. Reed Millar, 400 Coston Street, Monday evening, April 31, at 7:30. Jessie May McQueen will direct the games.

NEWMAN
A Communion Breakfast was held Sunday morning, March 31, after Mass, at the Lady of the Rosary church, 1524 Longmont, by the Newman club.

CANTERBURY
Thursday morning, March 27, at the regular Holy Communion service, students of the Episcopal faith heard Mr. Bert Larson, layman of the church, who spoke on "The Layman's Work in the Church." Bishop Rhea officiated. Communion services are held each second and fourth Thursday of the month.

Wilton E. Hartzler, college secretary for the American Friends Service Committee, will visit BJC on Wednesday, April 23. His program will be as follows: 9 a.m., speak to Sociology 12, room 208; 10 a.m. to 12 noon, meet students for individual conferences in room 211; 12:30, speak to IRC in room 210; 2:30 p.m., speak to Political Science, room 208.
Any student or faculty member is invited to attend any of these meetings. Mr. Hartzler will present the work of the American Friends Service Committee in summer camps, work shops and seminars. He wishes to secure BJC students for some of these activities, and any student wishing to talk with him please leave your name at the office of the Dean of Men.

Weekly Wisdom

By Kleon M. Kotter
Ever increasing are the ranks of those who would have an education without study, who would have government hand-outs without taxation, yes, who would have the finer things of life's accomplishments without effort. It would seem everybody wants to ride but nobody wants to pay for the gas. Let's take stock and ask ourselves, are we letting the "something for nothing" philosophy kill the honor of work?
Scriptural Wisdom: Six days thou shalt labour, and do all thy work. (Deuteronomy 5:13).
Mama—"Let's buy Junior a bicycle."
Papa—"Do you think it will improve his behavior?"
Mama—"No. But it will spread his meanness over a wider area."

Morrison Hall

By Shaff
Nothing much happening around Morrison Hall lately. Eight girls entertained at the U.S.O. again last Wednesday night. Those attending were: Peggy and Donna Wood, Lucille Spackman, Bonnie Cady, Diane Husche, Billy Lou Mieser, Shirleen Shaffer, and Bonnie Johnston.
The spring dance at Morrison Hall has been planned for April 16. Barbara Moulton is general chairman.

A week ago last Friday sixteen senior girls from Filer high school stayed at the dorm. They were on their senior "sneak." We took them all over the big city and showed them all the sights, even the prison. We really had a big time, I was wondering if they were ever going to bed that night. They made more noise until the wee wee hours of the morning.

So, Charlie Parker thought it would take more than two boys to throw her in a mud puddle, huh? I guess Gus Pastos and Joe Barroetebena showed her, but good. Was it wet, Charlie?

Future Farmers Convention Here

Some 500 Future Farmers of America were visitors on the Boise Junior College campus last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. These Future Farmers were attending the State Convention, which was held at BJC with sessions conducted at the auditorium.

These Future Farmers not only attended the sessions in the auditorium, but also ate their lunches in the Student Union each day, with a big banquet held there Friday night.

"What's puzzling you?" asked Mazie's girlfriend.

"Well, you know I've been going with Simon lately, and I like him a lot, but the other night I met Duke and he proposed to me."

"Well, so what?"
"I can't make up my mind whether to be ducoed or simonized."

Don't censure a man for flirting with the waitress. He may be playing for big steaks.

Used to be that a schoolboy just got a lickin' when he brought home an examination paper with low grades. Nowadays he gets drafted.

Driscoll Hall

By Percy
Things have been pretty quiet around the dorm for the last two weeks. Everyone has been waiting for spring weather to set in.

The baseball fever has hit the dorm, with two of our boys, Merlin Howard and Don Newbill, leaving school for two weeks to attend spring baseball camps in sunny California. We wish these boys luck.

The Driscoll Hall boys played hosts to eleven boys and two instructors from Filer high school who stayed at our dorm on Friday, March 21.

Refreshments were served to these visitors after the dance by the boys, with Mrs. Forter acting as hostess. According to reports, the visit was enjoyed by all.

Scandinavian To Speak Here

Dr. Sverre Arsted, of the University of Washington, will speak at BJC Friday, April 4th, in room 208 at 8 p.m. His topic will be "Youth in Scandinavia." Dr. Arsted, who will address a dinner meeting of the Boise Committee on Foreign Relations in the Hotel Boise before coming to BJC, is executive officer of the University of Washington department of Scandinavian language and literature.
