Anytime anything becomes such an obsession in someones life that it begins to become damaging to themselves or those around them, how then can it not be called an addiction?

A big hug to all who helped put up this show. Especially a thanks to Karena for designing lights and Amber for knowing how to run a VCR. Even though we are all suffering from a severe case of insomnia, at least we had a good time. Happiness is a coke and a smile, just remember that!

Well ok. So long and thanks for all the fish!
