ASB ELECTIONS FRIDAY

BJC Roundup

Boise, Idaho, April 13, 1953

Pictured above are the chairman and officers of the annual Intercollegiate Knights and Valkyrie carnival to be held at the Student Union Friday evening at 6:30. Featured in the carnival will be the Kissing Booth with those talented girls from the Valkyries taking over their duties in this event. Pictured left to right: Mary Gottenberg, Howard Adkins, Ron Carpentier and Norma Dike.

K's and Valkyries Sponsor Carnival On Friday Night

If your social calendar is filled for April 17 some alterations are in order! All the preparations being made for the gib IK-Valkyrie carnival spell fun and frolic for all.

There will be the usual carnival concessions plus a marriage booth, cake walk, movies and a big dance from 9:30 to 12:00. The Student Union will be the scene of the merriment. If you feel frustrated over those mid-term grades, you can satisfy that inner yearning at the pie-throwing booth where Joe Garro and Jack Mihan will provide a target for your resentment.

Co-chairmen Norma Dike and Ron Carpentier have announced the following booth assignments: kissing booth, Joann Hartzler and Sharon White; marriage booth, Mary Lou Edner, Helen Hall, Terry Wagstaff and Dick Ennis; penny pond, Betty German, Cathy Poole, Rex Fraser and Lyle Fern-ey; pie throwing booth, Donna Of-fer, Ilene Muhlestein, Joe Garro and Jack Mihan; fishing pond, Mary De Rain, Welles Henderson, Louis Eddy and Sid Nelson; duck pond, Dave Kallas; movies and photo booth, Dorothy Chatburn, Jean Fisher, Doris Lambeth and Leland Fowler; cake walk, Anne Reynolds, Margaret Clemans and Bob Peterson, and make-up booth, John Carley.

The decorations and publicity for the dance are being planned by Zuriel Elvin, Danny Nielsen, Rosalee Hartwell, Ina Routson and Don Bagley.

The carnival will be open to the grade school children of Boise from 6:30 to 9:00 and then the dance and college festivities will run from 9:30 to 12:00. Remember the date is April 17. Don't miss it!

Graduate's Art Serves U. S. Army

Dean Ingraham, who graduated from Boise Junior college in the spring of 1951, is now supplying art work for the various Army bases in Alaska. Here is a case where a soldier gets a break. He's doing what he likes to do, what he was trained to do, and he'll come out with a wealth of practical experience.

Dean is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean M. Ingraham of 1502 North 15th street in Boise. He graduated from Boise High school then continued his education at BJC, majoring in art. On the day he graduated, June 1, 1951, he enlisted, although his record was good enough and he had passed the Selective Service qualifying test with a high enough score to be permitted to continue his schooling.

Dean's duties at Richardson Field in Anchorage as artist for the armed forces in Alaska consist of making posters and cartoons for the various publications and displays.

Coed's Bedtime Prayer

Open your arms, oh faithful sack,
and let me rest my weary back;
Please accept these tortured limbs

Received from Alma Mater's whims.

Help me heal these bloodshot
orbe

Through which my knowledge is absorbed;

And stand you still, oh mat, I say,

And hold my elbows while I pray:

Forgive our chug - a - lugging
beer,

In drinking bouts — and listen
here: ..

Please help the parents send me
dough

So I can go, and go, and go ...

More On Wheezer

Just the other night Wheezer went on a long expedition. He got prepared for the trip by filling his tank and guzzling another of his weekly quarts of oil. Then he blinked his new tail-light, swished his one and only windshield wiper from the top, instead of the bottom, and gaily purred out Fairview to the Howdy Pardner. (I mention the name only because it has something to do with the rest of the story.) Wheezer was very proud of himself that he had gone all that distance without any help at all and when he clattered up to the curb he gave a soft sigh, a few squeaks, and growled to a stop.

Now this was all very pleasing to Wheezer because often he would see his friends there and really have a ball. Why, just about everybody pays some attention to him. (He thinks it's because he is such a special thing, but really it's because people wonder how he got clear out there.) But this one special evening Wheezer was at the H. P. He had to much attention and fuss made over him that he got quite swell headed. So much, in fact, that when Wheezer was leaving he backed into that big tree right in the middle of the drive-way. His glove compartment flew open and everything therein flew out. But Wheezer, still undaunted, motored home to his snug little garage.

You'll have to admit, though, Wheezer did try his best. But the trip was just too hard on the dear trip. By the next morning his battery had fallen out completely and one of his useless shock absorbers was missing, too. He'll never die, Wheezer will just part by part and fender by trunk handle, fade away.

This is a paid political advertisement.

John Carley, your friend and mine, is running for prexi of the ol' BJC.

Question Box

Do you think the sophomores should be able to vote in the student body elections Friday?

Ron Carpentier—I think so, if they vote for John Carley for prexi.

John Farley—Yes, because I need their votes.

Frank Carr—I think the voting should be left to the freshmen because the in-coming government will have no further bearing on the sophomores as they will soon be "fading away."

Arthur Mayse—No, because it is not for the graduates to choose the sophomore leaders.

Rosalee Hartwell—No, because the sophomores won't be here next year.

J. C. Shawver—No, because they are in their last year and will not be affected by the new officers.

Howard Adkins—Yes, from the experiences they have had in problems confronting the student body they will be able to help select the right person for the right post. I think this offsets the argument that the sophomores will not be governed by those they elect.

George Allen—Yes, because that way the interest in the election is not limited just to the freshmen, but to the whole school.

Wayne Reynolds—Since it is a freshman election, I don't think they should be able to vote.

Gary Ax—Yes, because they should know something about choosing the officers.

Gary Ferney—Yes, I think they should be able to vote because most of the sophomores will probably be back next year.

Lavern Jones—No, I don't think they should be able to vote because why should they care who runs the school next year if they won't be here?

Today Is Last Day To Obtain Petitions For ASB Offices

There are still some petitions available in Mr. Gottenberg's office to any freshman who is interested in running for a student body office for next year. The student must have at least a 2 point average and must be carrying 10 credit hours, exclusive of P.E., to be eligible to run for an office. The campaign speeches will be given at an all school assembly on Wednesday, April 15, at 9:40. The assembly will be held in the BJC auditorium. The speeches should contain the qualifications of the students to hold the particular office he is running for, and should have evidence enough to prove to the students that he is the man for that particular position.

The final elections will be held on Friday, April 17. Sophomores as well as freshmen are eligible to vote and it is hoped that everyone will cooperate and turn out for the elections. Remember, it is up to you to support the candidate you think is most qualified, so don't complain after the elections, vote on the 17th.

Don't forget that today is the last day to obtain petitions for offices. You can pick one up in Mr. Gottenberg's office.

Student of the Week

Kristin Mathews, freshman student, daughter of the dean, member of the choir and former Boise High school student is featured as student of the week.

She plans to make teaching of the finer arts and literature her profession and is taking a general course in this field at the college.

Kristin is a member of the Desert club and is being pledged into the Valkyries this semester.

Talented on the organ and piano, along with singing in the choir, Kristin uses most of her time on music.

A member of Miss Catherin's tennis class and an enthusiast of the sport, Kristin takes part in all sports but enjoys tennis the most.

Look around the hall and watch for Miss Mathews' big smile and friendly hello, for she always has both for everyone.

Choir News

It seems that fun was had by all when the choir took its annual tour last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The group visited many different towns including Nampa, Caldwell, Kuna, Meridian, Emmett, McCall, New Meadows, Cambridge and Weiser. However, the high point in the whole tour, was when the choir got to spend Friday night at Shore Lodge in McCall.

Club News

The Inter-Faith Council of Boise Junior college meets tonight for its final fireside meeting of the semester.

Dr. Schwartz, Boise Junior college English instructor, will be the guest speaker. Dr. Schwartz will speak of his experiences in England while on tour there last fall. Dr. Schwartz has quite a number of interesting and colorful color slides that he took while in England. These slides will be shown as part of his talk.

Members of the Inter-Faith Council invite all persons who are interested to attend this last fireside and hear Dr. Schwartz's talk. Driscoll hall is the place and 7:30 is the time.

Spring or Summer?

It's time to get out those overshoes, kids! Seems as though our calendar has been turned around this year. The beautiful white-wet sunshine has been so nice. Ah! What weather? Surely is grand, and so warm and enlightening. We thought winter had come and gone but must have been mistook. huh?

Summer is just around the corner, but it seems to be winter instead of spring preceding it.

Those clouds will soon dry and clear to let the sun shine through. Let's hope anyway!

Anyone interested in playing in the intramural tennis tournament should contact Miss Catherin and sign up.

Matches can be arranged at any time and on any court.

Don't Forget to Vote Friday

An unidentified Eastern Oregon College of Education player strikes out in the first game of a double header played at BJC. Both games were won by the Broncos. Behind catcher Allen Hochstrasser is umpire Frank Plouf.

Spring Has Sprung

Now that Spring has come, young men's and young women's fancies turn to thoughts of motoring out to see a little of the countryside.

Here are a few suggestions that may keep you out of the cemetery, or at least out of jail.

- ★ Give pedestrians a break—time to get out of your way
- ★ At night, lower your headlights when motoring or following your friend's car.
- ★ Yield the right-of-way, even though the other fellow may be wrong.
- ★ Overtake and pass only when you are sure you can do so with safety to other cars as well as your own.
- ★ Watch out for children—let them cross safely.
- ★ Adjust your speed according to conditions of weather, road and time of day.
- ★ Don't be a road hog. Keep to the right.
- ★ Don't "horn" your way through traffic.

Dorm News

"Little Sister Weekend" is to be a big event for all the little sisters of dormitory women, April 17 and 18. Some of the coeds don't have little sisters so are entitled to have guests or take care of some other girl's sister.

A picnic is planned at Julia Davis park Saturday afternoon, the 18th and a movie that evening. The girls will attend the I.K.-Valkyrie carnival on Friday and on Sunday everyone will attend church, and will leave for home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Schoenstein and Mr. Jamison left April 8, the organ having been completed. They were staying in Morrison during their work here on the organ.

Most of Morrison hall's occupants were at home during spring vacation. Joanne Waddell went to Huntington Beach, California; Barbara Wilson and Anna Mae; Barbara Ferguson, Fruitland; Barnadine Aubert, Spokane; Ada Billick and Delores Hanson, Nampa (Delores worked part time in Boise); Shirley Thomas, Pendleton, Oregon; Alma Averill, Council; Barbara Rea, Kuna; Lucille Spackman, Fairfield, Marga Lindemann spent most of the holiday at the dormitory with Marilyn Bishop and Marlene Ulrich. Barbara Pritzel went to New Plymouth; Shirleen Schaeffer, Caldwell; Dorothea Bretz, Nyssa; and Ina Routson spent some time at Doris Lambeth's home at Dietrich. Donna Bliss and Avis Smith were at Gooding; Joan Douglas, Mary Salazar and Sharon Nichol, at Emmett; Clara Durr at Mt. Home; and Pat Austin at Kesters'. Carol Riggs spent her time at Caldwell with her mother who joined her there.

Joana Coriel was home at Cambridge, and was married Sunday in the afternoon. Elsie Severs was bridesmaid for Joana with Mary Salazar, Sharon Nichol and Marlene Ulrich also at the wedding. Joana is returning to school this week.

Who Am I?

One of my most interesting experiences was when I was traveling to the United States. I can remember very clearly how difficult it was for me to get along in the state of Texas, which was one of the first states I was in.

I found during my trip, how different our two countries are. The tremendous progress of the United States made me think for a moment that I had entered a new world, leaving behind the rudimentary things we still use in Mexico. Even though Mexico was populated before the United States, it has had less than half the progress of the United States for innumerable reasons, and is the object of many misunderstandings. The political, economic, and moral situations are very different from those in the U. S. These are, I believe, the main reasons why the United States and Mexico are such different countries.

The reason for my visit to the United States is to study. I came here under the exchange students program, and all the good things I have had in BJC I owe to Mr. Gottenberg, who in 1951, attended summer school in my home town, Saltillo, and told me the possibilities in coming to BJC to further my education.

My duties in this college are: first, helping the Spanish department; second, attending my classes, and third, my part-time job. I haven't any hobbies, but I'm crazy about playing the piano and guitar. I play by ear.

I like American people very much and I hope that the exchange students program will someday help toward better understanding between countries.

I am Oliverio Ruiz and I reside in Driscoll hall.

Broncs Open Season

The grand debut of the Boise Junior college baseball team was an auspicious success by taking both ends of a double header from the Eastern Oregon College of Education 10-3 and 8-6 played here on the Boise Junior college baseball diamond.

Pitcher Don Newbill only allowed three hits in the first game and at the same time chalked up 13 strike-outs. Newbill pitched all of the first game, and, except for the third inning, was never in any trouble.

A brutal slugging attack by the Broncos helped Newbill's pitching. Homers by Leland Fowler and Frank Teverbaugh led the hitting attack of the Broncos.

In the second game, won 8-6, pitcher Don McFadden gave up only four hits, but needed the homer by Frank Teverbaugh with Ray Barnes on base, to ice the game.

B-Cube "Cotton Swing"

"Swinging Down the Lane" was the theme of the annual B-Cube Cotton Swing which was held last Friday, April 11, in the Student Union ballroom. Flowers, trellises, and other signs of spring were evident in the gaily decorated ballroom.

Those in charge of the affair were Helen McDaid, general chairman, and Jo Lizaso, co-chairman. Other committee chairmen were Liane Edlefsen, programs; Maureen Christie, decorations; Alene Siebe, intermission; Jeanne Bennett, publicity; Wanda Drake, Delores Hanson and Shirley Thomas, music; Delores Hanson, tickets; and Bunny Kane, door.

BJC Broncos Enter First Track Meet

Last Saturday, the 1953 edition of the Boise Junior college track squad opened the track season at Bulldog stadium by taking part in the Nampa invitational meet. Boise Junior college, Eastern Oregon College of Education, College of Idaho and Idaho State college had teams entered in various events from 100 yard dash to Javelin.

Those that represented BJC were Ed Groff, high hurdle, high jump and broad jump; Bill Gardner, mile relay, and 880 relay; Neil Gramkow, pole vault; Gary Collett, 100 yard dash and 220 yard dash; Otis Taylor, Javelin and mile; Tony Parks, mile relay and 880 relay; Mel Markus, half mile, mile relay, 220 yard dash and 440 yard dash; George Avant, discus and 880 yard relay; Al Moore, discus and javelin; Jerry Pappé, mile relay and 880 yard relay; Don White, 100 yard dash and 220 yard dash.

Results of the meet will be reported in the next edition of the Round Up.

Intramural Sports Planned

Plans are under way tentatively for a program of intramural sports in both softball and tennis, Coach Lyle Smith reported.

Calls for team organization will be made in the very near future for softball.
