Roundup

Boise, Idaho, May 18, 1953

'53 "LES BOIS" DUE TODAY

The 1953 edition of the Les Bois made its appearance this morning. It is very pleasing, with its 120 pages enclosed in a dapper, tan linen cover imprinted with the school seal, name and year in orange color.

Editor Danny Nielson has produced an outstanding book with the efficient help of her staff. The five division pages are cleverly arranged with clippings from the Rounduu so as to convey the theme of a scrapbook.

"This year the book is dedicated to Mrs. Hershey," said Danny, "for her many years of selfish devotion to this college and for her zeal in helping students plan their college careers. Mrs. Hershey started with Boise Junior college in 1932 and has successively been teacher, college librarian and registrar."

Much of the success of the book, from a financial viewpoint, can be credited to Mary Salazar, business manager, who has equalled the sales record of any past business manager. Said Mary in regard to her phase of the book, "Students should remember that without the support of the Boise merchants, this book would be impossible. We have a good deal to thank them for."

"The staff has tried to produce a real memory book for the students who attended the college this year," concluded Danny.

Distribution of the books will continue throughout the week at no cost to those students who have had activity tickets and had their picture taken for the annual. For others there is a charge.

Former B.J.C. Student Elected

Annette Black, BJC graduate with the class of 1952, has been elected secretary of the senior class at BYU. Annette was very active in affairs during the two years in attendance BJC. She was president of the Associated Women and a member of both the acapella choir and the Valkyries.

Chad White Elected National IK King

Chad White, a BJC graduate now attending Idaho State college in Pocatello, was elected national royal king of the Intercollegiate Knights at a recent convention held on the campus of Utah State Agricultural college in Logan, Utah.

Mr. White will fill the office vacated by Bill Moulton, also a BJC graduate.

Also elected to national office was Jack White who was elected secretary.

Bruce Williams will fill the office of regional viceroy.

Club News

Last Wednesday, May 6, 1953, Ted Palmer was elected president of the Phi Theta Kappa. He will take over the duties from this year's president, Terry Wagstaff. The new vice president is Marjorie Black and she will fill the place of Norma Dike, Mary Louise Cottrell will receive the books of the secretary from this year's secretary, Genina Greer, and Joan Douglas will be the new treasurer taking the place of Glenn Hostetler. Other new members are Jim Crawford, Dick Moore, Elise Yeaman, Shirley Byrne, LaVerne Jones and Danny Nielson.

Saturday night, May 9, 1953, Delta Psi Omega held their initiation for the eight new members. The initiation was held at Dorothy Catburn's house. New members are: Ken Moore, Elizabeth Wittell, Gus Robinson, Sharon White, Ed Fordham, Terry Hepner, Steve Emerine and Wanda Drake. The older members of Delta Psi received their pins last week.

Students of Week

It seems that freshman Delores Hanson from Nampa would hardly have time to sew her own clothes with all her other campus activities, but that is one of her favorite pastimes.

Delores is taking a secretarial course and plans to attend Idaho State college after her graduation from BJC. She spends a great deal of her time at her typewriter in Mr. Gottenberg's office. She also works at the Rialto theater on weekends. Among her other hobbies are dancing and typing.

Among her campus activities are B-Cubes, IRC and Valkyries. She will also serve as Morrison hall social chairman and AWS vice-president for next year.

Another freshman student is Vern Wright of Payette. You may have seen Vern's bright red hair and flashing smile as he was working some afternoon in the administration building. He is taking an engineering course and plans to attend the University of Oregon.

Mr. Wright claims Driscoll hall as his home and lists his favorite hobbies as dancing, skating and swimming.

Broncs Place 4th

Coach George Blankley's track squad placed fourth in a meet at Ogden, Utah, despite the efforts of Don White and other Bronco tracksters.

Today marks the beginning of the last week of classes; next week is examinations and then Commencement June 1.

Graduating students must be measured for cap and gown in room 118 before the close of this week. All graduates will meet at 12:30 noon in room 110, Wednesday, May 20, to receive final instructions regarding the commencement activities.

Examinations are scheduled to begin Monday morning, May 25, and will run throughout that week. Friday evening, May 29, the graduation formal will be held.

Baccalaureate services will be conducted in the auditorium Sunday, May 31, at 4 p.m. with George L. Nelson, president of the Monument Park Stake in Salt Lake City, as the speaker. Both the processional and recessional marches will be played by Mr. Bratt at the organ. The choir is scheduled to sing at this service. Graduates will assemble that Sunday at 2 p.m. to practice.

Commencement exercises will take place Monday morning, June 1 at 10 o'clock with graduates assembling at 9 for final instructions. Faculty will receive their instructions from Mrs. Bedford. The college concert band will play the processional and recessional marches under the direction of Mr. Best and the speaker for the day will be C. C. Calvert, director of research for the American Association of Junior Colleges at the University of Texas. Students appearing as vocalists on the two programs will be Warren Pepperdine, Terry Wagstaff and Rex Fraser or Sidney Nelson.

President and Mrs. Chaffee will be hosts at a reception for the faculty, graduates and their parents following the commencement exercises. This will be held in the Student Union.

Graduation students should obtain their tickets for their parents to both exercises from room 118. Caps and gowns may be obtained from the bookstore, Wed., Thurs. and Fri., May 27, 28 and 29 between the hours of 9:15-10:15 and 1:30-3:30. They will have to be taken home to be pressed. Directly after the reception in the Student Union the caps and gowns can be checked in to attendants in the room under the stage.

Students to Recite

Lucille Spackman and Sid Nelson, students at Boise Junior college, will present a graduation recita at the BJC auditorium, Monday, May 18, at 8:15 p.m. The recital will be presented by the BJC music department. They will be accompanied by Miss Helen Bullock.

Both students are music pupils of Mrs. Lucille Forter, music teacher here at Boise Junior college.

Notice

Any student who wishes second semester grades mailed to him or her may leave a stamped self-addressed envelope at the information window in the general office.

Graduates Attention

All graduates meet with Mr. Gottenberg Wednesday, May 20th, in room 110 at 12:30 for graduation instructions.

Last Dance of Year

The last and probably the biggest formal dance of the year will be held on Friday night, May 29 in the Union ballroom. This big event will be the graduation ball which is given by the freshman class in honor of the graduating sophomores.

The decorations will follow a graduation theme with the ballroom being decked with flowers and little silhouettes of graduates. The flower displays will be arranged by Jimmy Jones, florist.

Music for the dance will be furnished by Jim Baker and his orchestra.

General chairman of the ball is Miss Marjorie Black and assisting her will be Mary Louise Cottrell, invitations chairman; Sandra Deppe, refreshments chairman; Leona Sweeney, decorations chairman; Bill Wardle, programs chairman,

New Editors for '53

Editor appointments were made by the student executive board at its regular meeting last Wednesday.

Student body president Jerry Crandall said that the board appointed Helen McDaid to the editorship of Les Bois for next year and Charles Shangle to the Roundup.

Helen has been assistant editor under Delores Nielson and has had considerable experience this year in layout work. She has already formulated some ideas for next year.

Charles has been on the Roundup staff this past semester as a reporter and promises to edit the best paper possible for the student body next semester.

and Jerry Crandall, hospitality. Since this is the last dance of the year, it is hoped that everyone will come and join in the fun.

Editor's Farewell

As the school days of this year draw to a close so, also, does my job of being editor of the Roundup. During the past semester, the paper staff and I have tried our best to please the students as much as possible with the news in the Roundup. Although we didn't succeed 100 per cent we hope the majority of you enjoyed reading the paper. Next year your new Roundup editor, Charles Shangle, will try to improve the paper as much as possible and make it more interesting for all of you. So, until then—Goodbye!

Question Box

Do you think the graduation ball should be formal or semi-formal? If it is semi-formal, will you attend?

Jerry McCann—I think it should be formal since it is the last dance of the school year.

Bunny Kane—Yes, I think the ball should be formal, it is the last dance of the year and carries with it many lasting memories.

Darlene Young—Yes, a formal dance, definitely!

Bob Crisp—I definitely believe that an affair of this type should be formal, as it helps to retain memories.

Shirley Byrne—Yes, I think it should be formal. A formal dance fits the occasion better and is remembered longer than a semi-formal, however, if it is a semi-formal I wouldn't stay home on that account.

Marion Watson—Since graduation itself is more a formal affair, I feel that the ball should be too.

Don Maypole—Formal!

Mary Gottenberg—Since B.J.C. does not sponsor many formal dances, it seems appropriate that the graduation ball be a formal affair!

Herb Brewer—We've had too many formal dances this semester. I think it should be on the order of the cotton swing.

Jerry Medsker—I hate formals, because it's too hot.

Sharon Morrow—I think it should be a formal, they are always nicer.

Barbara Rea—It would be nice to have it formal.

Gerry Keener—I feel that it should be formal. It would give the graduating class something to remember.

Kenneth Moore—I would say it should be formal with those attending being of the graduating class—that is one member of the class being a member of the graduating class.

Tom Stuart—Formals are nice, but practically out of date. Semi-formal is more practical.

Helen McDaid—I definitely think it should be formal.

Jokes??

Who was the first American hep cat in history?

Answer: Teddy Roosevelt when he said "Dig that canal."

Pictured above is the catcher for the BJC baseball team, Mr. Alan Hochstrasser. For his fine performance as catcher and all-around player, he has been named as the athlete of the week.

Alan is a member of the 1953 graduating class of BJC and he plans to attend Brigham Young university next year. Being a teacher is his main goal, his curriculum is education and he works in the film library during his spare time.

Besides playing baseball he is active in football and his hobbies are fishing and being a backyard mechanic.

Wild Cats Take Three Games from BJC Broncs

The baseball forces of Coach Llye Smith suffered a triple defeat at the hands of the Webed Wildcats in three games played May 8th and 9th at Ogden, Utah. From start to finish the Wildcats were in complete control of the games, so inept were the Broncs of BJC.

Weber opened the series by taking both ends of a double header from the Broncs 8-0 and 7-6. In the first game Weber's pitcher allowed only two hits in beating Don Newbill, Bronco pitcher. In the second game, the Broncs, behind pitcher Don McFadden, started to pull the game out of the fire but fell one run short in losing 7-6. The next day the Wildcats were still able to keep their pace and posted a 5-2 win over pitcher Ray Barnes.

Thus far in Intermountain conference play the Broncs have won two games while losing six.

Broncs Down Air Men

Pitcher LeRoy Weber and outfielder Ray Barnes ganged up together and downed the Mountain Home Air Force baseball club to the tune of 12-2. Weber only allowed a couple of scattered hits to hold the Flyers in check while Barnes slugged the ball out of the park to lead the Bronco attack. The victory was the third win over the Mountain Home club by the Broncs this year.
