MEET THE TEACHER

Coming to IJC fresh out of high school this year is Norman F. Dahm. Don't misunderstand Mr. Dahm was a high school teacher in Ontario, Oregon.

Prior to his four years at Ontario high school, Mr. Dahm attended the University of Colorado, where he received his bachelor of science, civil engineering, and master of education degrees. An engineer at heart, Mr. Dahm spent his four summers in Ontario as city engineer. Spare time, too, is devoted to this field, since Mr. Dahm enjoys drafting as an avocation.

The navy claimed Mr. Dahm for two years, from 1934 to 1936.

Mr. Dahm's two year old son has recently become an avid football fan, taking after his father in this respect. "Clifford never misses a game," says Mr. Dahm, smiling. Undoubtedly, Clifford will become extremely interested in basketball, along with his dad, as soon as the season opens.

Other sports interest Mr. Dahm, who always reads the sports' page first. In high school and college he participated in football and basketball.

A native of Colorado, Mr. Dahm likes Boise very much. As for IJC, he likes the faculty's friendliness, and is pleased to state that he has had no trouble with students yet. "Quite a change from high school," he said with a laugh.

Question Box

If you had any news that you wanted to put in the school paper, how would you go about getting it in?

Gary Robinson, freshman, Boise: "I would go to Chuck Shangle or one of his representatives."

Gene Heady, freshman, Boise: "I don't know who the editor is but I know the business manager, so I would contact her."

Ronald Jorgansen, freshman, Boise: "I would go to the editor or the dean of men or someone that was working on the staff. I don't know any of them or where I might contact them."

Denny Weisgerber, sophomore, Idaho City: "I would write my story and dispatch it to the staff of the paper then read it closely to see if they had changed it."

Jim Wells, freshman, Boise: "I would go to Dean Mathews or look in one of the old papers for the editor."

Don Tate, freshman, Mountain Home: "I don't really know, but I would try and look up the editor." Bill Tarrow, freshman, Butte, Montana: "I don't really know how you would go about it, I guess you would go to a representative of the paper."

Ann Hilliard, B.J.C. majorette

Homecoming

Chairman Bob Kellogg announced the following committee heads for homecoming: Leone Sweeney, dance; Bill Wardle, pep rally; Jerry Medsker, half-time; Marv Gardner, publicity; Bunny Kane, Union Night; John Carley, queen selection, and George Swanson, parade.

Dancing Class

Mrs. Boyles has announced that anyone who is interested in taking social dancing lessons should contact her. The class will probably meet in the evening. All who are interested may leave a note in her box in the main office.

The B.J.C. band is proud of its new majorette this year. And it has every right to be proud! She is Ann Hilliard, formerly of Indianapolis, Indiana, who presents to Boise crowds something very different from the usual twirling routines here.

Ann was considered quite expert, even at home, where twirling is a more popular accomplishment. Proof of this are four first place medals and two second place medals which she earned in all-state Indiana competition.

These medals were all earned over a period of two years, after Ann had finished two years of private twirling lessons. Her experience includes two years in the high school band there.

Ann's favorite contest was at Butler university in Indianapolis. Twirlers from all over the state appeared with the university band during the half-time of the all-star basketball game. After marching around the gym with the band, each twirler presented her routine

Drama Tryouts Soon to Be Held

Mr. Merrill Hansen, drama coach, said there are four copies of the immensely popular stage play, "I Love Lucy", which have been placed on reserve in the library. Anyone wishing to try out for the play should read the book. Tryouts in building T-1, October 14-15 from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m.

Pictures of students for the 1954 "Les Bois", Boise Junior College yearbook will be taken this week by Franklin Carr, BJC photographer.

By having your picture taken you not only have it in the yearbook but you are assured of getting your copy and best of all, the price of $1.00 covers your picture and the price of the yearbook.

Pictures will be taken between the hours of 9:00 to 1:30 every day of the week in the mezzanine of the student union.

It has been asked that the girls wear dark-toned sweaters with simple neck jewelry and that the boys wear sports coat with tie.

Pictures will be taken by appointment; however, if one is not made the picture will be taken when possible.

I.R.C. to Have Guest Speaker

Mrs. E. N. Torbert will address the members of the International Relations Club at the Boise Junior College ballroom on Monday evening, October 19, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Torbert has just recently returned from the near east and will speak on the topic "Afghanistan, As I Saw It." The members of the League of Women voters will be guests of the International Relations Club at the meeting. Other interested students, faculty members and friends will be welcome. Because of her recent visit, no doubt, Mrs. Torbert will have some worthwhile things to say to those who are able to attend.

Allene Siebe, will sing, "Go Away From My Window," American folksong arranged by Niles. She will be accompanied by Ruth Anne Fountain.

Union Night

Friday evening, October 16, a Union Night will be held in the Student Union. The admission will be 25 cents per person.

Mrs. Burke, dean of women, said that the Union Nights serve to fill in when there are no major athletic or social functions. She encouraged all students to attend and emphasized that dancing is not the only entertainment, as there are usually card games and gab sessions in progress. Also, the fountain is open on these nights. Mrs. Burke pointed out that it is a good way to become better acquainted with students, and that posters advertising each dance are placed in the main hall and in the Student Union before each dance.

Debate Plans

The Boise Junior college debating program is getting under way with Harold Wennstrom, faculty member, in charge.

Wennstrom said the topic chosen for this year's debate is: "Resolved that the United States should adopt a policy of free trade." Any Boise Junior college student is eligible to participate in this program and are urged to contact Mr. Wennstrom.

Wennstrom added that again as in the past four years Bob Fifer will contribute prizes for the four top debaters of the season. Thirty dollars will be given by him for this purpose. A team of judges will be selected at a later date, and a schedule of meets will be published.

CLUB NEWS

Future Teachers of America

Future Teachers of America will hold their first meeting in the north lounge of the Student Union at 9:45 a.m., Tuesday, October 13. All those interested in teaching are invited to attend.

Newman Club

The B.J.C. Newman club held its first meeting Monday, October 5, at Our Lady of the Rosary church. Don Pape, a former B.J.C. student and Newman club member, gave a talk on his experiences as a jet pilot and his stay as a prisoner of war.

The members decided to hold a cake sale at the church after their Communion breakfast. They also decided to enter a float in the homecoming parade. Joan Wilson was appointed float chairman.

The College of Idaho, who is interested in starting a Newman club, invited the group to their first meeting.

B-Cubes

B-Cubes, an organization composed of freshman girls, held their first meeting Friday noon.

Westminster Club

The first candy sale of the year at B.J.C. will be held Thursday in the main hall. The sale, sponsored by the Westminster club, will feature home made candy.

W. U. S. WEEK

Ann's major at B.J.C. is secretarial science. She likes all sports, plays the piano and was active on publications staffs in high school.

The Hilliards moved to Boise in September . . . just in time to enroll at B.J.C. Although Ann had planned to attend Indiana university, she likes Boise, B.J.C., and the friendly campus atmosphere.

W. U. S. WEEK

Do you know what W.U.S. week is? Do you know when it is going to be held? Do you know why it is held?

This enlightening article is to be continued.

Drive Carefully

Much has been written on the subject of careful driving. This year at B.J.C. the problem is far more severe than it has been in the past and we, the students of B.J.C., who drive cars have a greater responsibility than ever before.

Remember that there is now a grammar school located next to the campus and small children do not always think before they act, and that is our job—to think for them when we drive.

It would be a great credit to our school and the students if we can avoid any accidents on or near our school. So let us all drive carefully.

GOING, GOING, GONE. Bryant Lemon, Bronco back, starts his 33 yard TD sprint as Bill Butler, in background, blocks one player and Bill Tarrow is about to level the last Yakima player.

The IDAHO STATESMAN

Part of Life in Idaho Since 1864

Player of the Week

Bryant Lemon, taking a hand-off, went scooting around his own left end, running in front of him was Bill Butler, Bronco guard, who leveled a Yakima man that helped Lemon go the distance and score the first touchdown of the game. For that block and many others Bill Butler is our player of the week.

It is no coincidence that many of the Bronco touchdowns are led by Butler for he has a very definite ability for cutting down defensive players who are trying to bust up a play.

Trying to list all of Bill's football experience would take quite a bit of space, but, briefly, he was a guard of Bob Gibb's great teams of '45-'46 and an all conference player. After Boise High, he played service football for the Marines and after his hitch was up decided to play for B.J.C.

It all adds up to quite a number

Football Notes

The Owls of Oregon Tech, October 31 foes of B.J.C., lost a 21 to 19 football game to the Seattle Ramblers. But the loss is of little comfort to Coach Lyle Smith and his gridders, for the Seattle Ramblers are a semi-pro team and the same ball club that waxed Everett J. C. last year 35-12!

B.J.C. beat Everett in the opener 19-13.

The new issue of Sport Magazine has a very interesting article on junior college football, but for some odd reason it failed to even have a "B.J.C." on its pages. The article did mention the Potato Bowl game, though, and some Bronco fans may recall that the Broncos managed to win only two of these games. The main reason being that B.J.C. has only played in this game twice; hence to California J. C. fans, not enough to mention.

The article did mention some of the California powers such as Chaffey J. C., beaten only 71-13 by the Broncos in their last meeting. Pasadena and Long Beach City College were honored in the article but even their wins over of years of football and this will probably be Bill's last year of ball. But the Broncos still have some tough ball games ahead of them and Butler still has some memories of last year's Pasadena game.

Broncs Crush Yakima 33-0

The football forces of Coach Lyle Smith made a virtual scrimmage game out of Yakima, 33-0. The Broncs made some 272 yards rushing to Yakima's 32, and 205 yards passing to Yakima's 54.

Bryant Lemon started the show by going out 33 yards on a reverse to end a 53 yard march. The conversion was good and Yakima from that point never quite knew what hit it.

Fullback Fred Miklancic's 37 yard run, pass from Ed Lodge to end Bruce Brenn, Dick Newby's 6 yard plunge and Ron Campbell's 8 yard reverse added six points to the scoreboard.

Next week the Broncs will be back home playing the Weber Wildcats and then it will be Oregon Tech!

B.J.C. was not worth the printer's ink.

Boiling it down, the article seemed to hit the great wins of California teams and their holding edge over the other sections of the country. Of course B.J.C. has only won eight from their neighbors while losing all of two. However, in California they do things in a big way and an eight to two margin is considered small.

All in all it was a very good article, especially if you are from California.
