Debate To Be Held Here

BJC Council

BOISE, IDAHO

February 15, 1954

Shirley Byrne still won't tell the five "King of Hearts" candidates gathered about her just which one is to occupy the throne; however, the secret's out now, and Bruce Brenn was crowned King. The boys are, left to right: Fred Orchard, Bruce Brenn, Lyle Buhler, LeRoy Buhler and Ed Lodge.

King of Hearts Crowned at Ball

Traditional red hearts and cameras decorated the Student Union ballroom for the annual "King of Hearts" ball Friday evening. The ball is sponsored every year in February by the AWS. The highlight of the affair was the crowning of Bruce Brenn as King of Hearts at intermission time. LeRoy Buhler and Ed Lodge attended the king as jacks. The three were chosen from an original list of 10 nominees who were chosen by women students.

Shirley Byrne, AW prexy and chairman of the dance, crowned the king.

68 Registered

According to Registrar Howard the day school shows an enrollment of 638 students, slightly less than last semester's enrollment. Men students still outnumber women students more than two to one.

Among the new faces seen in halls from the Boise area are Jimmy Ogden, Carleene Koppes, Ward Barton, Jean Montgomery, Sam Sower. New inhabitants of Morrison hall are Dorothy Harpette; Carol Laird, Weiser, Ruth Orantes, El Salvador. Registrar at Driscoll shows 12 residents, among them a transfer from the University of Idaho, Earl Mann, and Bill Morrison of Nysaa, a transfer from Oregon State.

Delta Psi Initiates

To be, or not to be: that is the question. Whether 'tis nobler... Nobody's flipped, and Mrs. X isn't giving a "lit" test. It's Week, and all students are eligible for membership in Delta Psi. Candidates have to have a quotation available at the drop of a mask. Candidates were pledged last night in a ceremony in T-1, the theatre, by the cast of the chapter, following which they used the spring play. For the remainder of the week, they must be prepared to perform at the re-

BJC Drivers Prove Adolescent Ability

In an interview with Police Magistrate Dale Morgan, several interesting facts on the driving habits of BJC students were revealed.

"Without making too elaborate a check," said Mr. Morgan, "I am sure that we have a higher percentage of college students brought in for traffic violations than high school students. This is disconcerting because we expect college students to be emerging from adolescence and entering adulthood."

The magistrate pointed out that he had offered several students the opportunity to work out their fines at the rate of $1.15 per hour but they always seem horror struck.

"Apparently," he said, "they would much rather dad would pay the fine."

This reporter was advised by Mr. Morgan that he is contemplating publishing a separate list of BJC traffic offenders.

As a final word, Mr. Morgan said, "I am always most happy to see BJC students put their best foot forward, but I'd like to see them keep it off the accelerator."

quest of any member.

On Friday, the "Goats" will present a free, impromptu show at the Studio theatre.

Don't Park There!

Students are advised that they must observe the parking regulations and not leave their cars in those areas marked off with yellow. Numerous violations have been recorded, especially in front of the Ad building and the Student Union. In the future the third offense will cost the offender $1.00, which will be deducted from his general deposit.

BJC Donates $166 To Dimes Fund

According to Dr. Paul Baker, Boise Junior College collected approximately $166.25 for the March of Dimes last month. Of this amount $91.25 was turned in by Norman Dahm from the faculty.

Many means were employed to raise dimes for the project. Among them were the "Dime on the Line" campaign, containers in frequented locations, throwing money on a sheet at a basketball game and selling coffee for 15c one day in the Student Union. Former polio patient Lyle Buhler had charge of this and saw that the extra dime was given to the polio fund.

The last and most enjoyed project was the variety show on Thursday, February 4. Chairmen were Roberta Wilson and Larry Smythe. Jim Wells and Ken Edson handled the advertising. Freddie Normon and Johnny Johnson from the Buffalo club, and multi-talented George Aurdon entertained along with several BJC students. Leonard Kaprowsky and Jerry Crandall were masters of ceremonies and Beverly Balderston and Pat Owens were in charge of serving free coffee and cookies. About 100 students attended.

Boise Junior College will be host to an all-Idaho intercollegiate debate and forensic tournament February 19 and 20, as announced by Mr. Wennstrom, debate director.

He added that contestants from College of Idaho, Idaho State College, Northwest Nazarene College, Ricks College and the University of Idaho will compete in debate, interpretive reading and the following classes of speaking: extemporaneous, reading, impromptu, sales and after dinner.

Boise Junior College Grad Makes Good

One former BJC student who has proven herself a success in her chosen field is Miss Ruth McBirney, our new librarian, who started her college studies at BJC.

Born in Boise (sorry, but the date is off the record), Miss McBirney attended Washington and Lowell grade schools, Boise High, and BJC. Somewhere along the way she decided upon a career as a Librarian.

Miss McBirney really wanted to be a civil engineer, but her father turned thumbs down because it wasn't a lady's profession. She absolutely didn't want to be a stenographer, or teacher so there was one choice left.

From BJC she went to Whitman College, and won her B.A. degree in librarianship at the University of Washington. Her first job was at BJC, from where she went to the music library at Columbia University. She next obtained employment as reference librarian at the American Library in Paris. Two years later she succeeded the head librarian and has held that position since. She came to Boise last November on a year's leave of absence, and when Mrs. Bedford became ill consented to finish the year for her.

The one thing Miss McBirney misses most is the food, which she rates wonderful. Life in France is much like that in the U.S. Generally speaking, prices are comparable to those over here. Rent is the one item which is much lower in France. The national standard of living is lower than ours because the Frenchman averages one-third the salary of his Am-

Heading a student committee to assist Mr. Wennstrom is Lora Cleary.

Friday morning will be spent by the students in registering and touring the campus, and by the coaches in business meeting. The tournament will be opened officially by President Chaffee at 1 p.m. with a speech of welcome. Following the afternoon activities there will be a banquet at 6:30 p.m. in the Student Union for all participants and coaches. These visitors will be guests at the regular Union Night dance Friday.

Saturday's activities will begin with a 7:30 a.m. breakfast followed by the finals in all activities. Finals will be held in classrooms of the Administration building.

BJC To Add New Campus Buildings

Boise Junior College is fast outgrowing the facilities available. Classes are becoming too large for the rooms and the library has no room for expansion.

To compensate for this lack of space, a bond election is being planned for the very near future to provide funds for a science building and a gymnasium.

President Chaffee is planning to take a tour of western schools and campuses for the purpose of studying similar new buildings.

The science building will be located north and west of the present Administration building. The new gymnasium will possibly be located north and east of the present gym.

IF Fireside Held

The Interfaith Council had its second fireside last night at Morrison hall. Mireille Navarro and Marga Lindeman from Bolivia, Olga Figueroa from Guatemala, and Valerie Lindsey from England were featured on the program. They told about the customs of the young men and women their age in their own countries and their reactions to the United States.

Cocoa and cookies were served by President Pat Austin.

Wennstrom Speaks On Conference Panel

Harold Wennstrom, BJC speech and radio instructor, accepted an invitation to participate in a panel discussion at the annual meeting of the Northwest Drama Conference on February 12.

Other panel members included James Cameron of the Civic theatre, Portland; Laurence Brewster of Western Washington college, and Mrs. Ralph Moe of the North Bend Civic theatre.

The subject of the discussion was "Factors in Choosing a Play for Production".

erican counterpart.

Her favorite pastimes are music and sightseeing. She has seen nearly all the major cities, historical sites, art treasures and scenes west of the Iron Curtain. Still, there is "so much more to see in France alone."

When asked her opinion of the present BJC, Miss McBirney said the students are improved in their attitude, maturity, and cooperation compared to when she first worked here. However, her pet peeve is "students who haven't grown up yet."

NNC Drops BJC 65-60

Left without the services of Jim Hill, who was sidelined with a sprained ankle received in Ricks game, the Broncos lost NNC 65-60 in the final game of the season between the two clubs. Trailing during the first half, surging into the lead under shooting of Bradshaw and Goin, high point men for BJC with apiece, the Broncos held off NNC quintet until the last minutes of play. The Crusaders, led by Finkbeiner with 22 points, dumped in three quick baskets to take the game.

Elks Lodge To Grant $25,000 In Awards

The Elks lodge is making available $25,000 in scholarships to students in the graduating class of high schools or any undergraduate class of a recognized college. Any BJC student who is interested in entering this national scholarship contest is invited to see Mr. Chatburn, chairman of the BJC scholarship committee; his office is located in the film library. Entrants will be judged on scholarship, citizenship, personality, leadership, perseverance, resourcefulness, patriotism and worthiness. Application blanks and a typewritten form presenting merits of the student must be presented. The deadline for these is February 21. Awards in the contest are as follows: first, $1,000; second, $700; and 20 $500 awards. In each case there will be separate awards granted to a boy and girl, of the amounts stated above.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:
Much as I appreciate the unselfish and good thoughts behind the article which appeared on the front page of the last issue of the paper concerning the $20 donation made by the BJC student body to the March of Dimes fund drive, I feel that someone must come to its defense. True, $20 is a somewhat measly sum in comparison to the total enrollment of BJC. However, it must be remembered that here—as everywhere else—the students are asked to dip into their pockets for one worthy cause or another with disconcerting regularity. As indicated by a recent survey, a very large part of the student body are working people. There are two implications here: (1) We are all having certain difficulties in financing our educations, and (2) many have already donated generously through their places of employment. And the grand totals which have been listed in campaigns in the city itself indicate that many of the students' families have done their part generously also. One last word—when a goal is set on charity, it ceases to be charity.

Sincerely,
Nancy Wanlace.

College Deferment Applications Due

All eligible students who intend to take the Selective Service Qualification test in 1954, should file applications immediately, as the deadline is March 8. Early filing will be advantageous to the student. Applications may be obtained at the Selective Service local board.

Music Notes

Tentative plans are in the making for a band trip April 8, 9, 10. These plans include a whistle-stop tour of southwestern Idaho, points east and on to Sun Valley for an overnight stay, according to Mr. John H. Best, BJC band director. Also, a reminder to students, the Band Capades scheduled for the latter part of March, and an announcement from Mr. Bratt that the choir is scheduled to do a Pelistrina Mass this semester.

BJC and Ricks Split Series

In the ball games between the Broncos and the Ricks College Vikings the 3rd and 4th of this month the Broncos dropped the first game to the Vikings 76-66. In the second game, the Broncos, behind the accurate shooting of the Hill brothers and the spark of little Max Goin, came from behind in the last four minutes of play to dump the league leading Vikings 57-53. Dick Mikelsen was the thorn in the Broncos' side totaling 22 points the first game and 16 the second.

Intramural Teams Begin Competition

Under the supervision of the head Bronco coach, Lyle Smith, the two sports, football and basketball, have been combined to form what is known as Intramural basketball. A peek at one of the games will verify this.

Composed of men of the campus who enjoy basketball, dunking and thinking up names, the sport got underway Monday afternoon at 4:00 p.m. at the gym, with the Meatballs dropping a close one to the I.K.'s 43-41. At 5:00 p.m. Suite F, trampled the Campus Trotters 36-18. Tuesday afternoon the Motherbears defeated the Howitzers 36-34 and the Campus Clowns dumped Gonzales 42-28.

Schedule for the remainder of the month is as follows:
Feb. 11, 4:00 p.m., Sharpies vs. Papabears; 5:00 p.m., J.S.'s vs. Vocational.
Feb. 14—4:00 p.m., Suite F vs. Howitzers; 5:00 p.m., Gonzales vs. Humpty Dumptles.

Feb. 22—7:00 p.m., Papabears vs. Gonzales; 8:00 p.m., Campus vs. Meatballs.

Foreign Feast Slated

Friday evening is the time set for the Valkyries foreign pot-luck dinner. Each member will furnish a foreign dish for the affair, which will be held at Margo Newton's home before the Union Night dance. All Valkyries are urged to attend.

Trailing during the first half in both games with the Weber Warriors last Friday and Saturday, the Broncos came from behind on both counts to down the Warriors by almost identical scores: first game 70-67, second game 72-65.

High scoring men for the Broncos were again the Hill brothers, Bradshaw and Goin. With these two wins the Broncos pulled themselves out of the league cellar and dumped the Warriors into that position.

IRC To Hold Session On BJC Campus

International Relations will be held here on a two-day institute of International Relations will be held here on February 26 and 27, according to Rev. Saul Miller, chairman of the Boise Valley International Relations committee.

Dr. Eugene Chaffee will deliver the address of welcome to open the session at 4 p.m. on the 26th. The Saturday sessions will be open to the public and will begin at 9 a.m. in the Ad building.
