Roman Holiday Is Theme of Dance

"Roman Holiday" will be the theme of BJC's "bonus" dance of the school year to be held at 9:00 p.m. March 5, in the Student Union, social committee member Beverly Butwell announced.

The affair, which is being sponsored by the social committee assisted by the Union Nite committee, will highlight the music of the Mobly Maids.

The dance, the committee member said, will be an informal affair. Ties, sport coats and slacks are in order for the guys and boys and high-heels for the gals.

Also, she pointed out, it is a date dance. No student will be admitted without a date. Presentation of a single activity ticket will be the only admission price per couple.

Plans Underway for Bandcapades

The band has been blowing long and hard lately in preparation for the second annual Bandcapades, April 1st and 2nd. The purpose of the Bandcapades is to raise some of that scarce money to finance the band's spring tour.

A two part program is planned with the band performing in the first half. The second half will be a series of specialty acts, and a new band will be featured.

Tickets will go on sale around March 15th, so put a few nickels in your old sock between now and then.

Man's Private Vine

I was busy downing a bowl of soup at the drive-in the other day when in came Fred. It wasn't intentional, mind you, but I just happened to overhear.

Fred: "Is this ice cream pure?"
Waitress: "As pure as the girl in your dreams."

Fred: "Give me a pack of cigarettes."

Question of the week: What was Carol Berry doing last week with that box of graham crackers? We will now have a line of silence for the world championship chess playoffs. In spite of a phenomenal run of bad luck, the local vortex have picked up and now seem destined to retain their crown.

Romance language night will be March 11. Director Cecil B. Neufville gave me the scoop on the French play, "Antoinette ou le Retour du Marquis." The cast includes Marlene Mitchell, Nancy Phillips, Robert Wood, George Smith, Henry Arguinchona, Mary Grimm, Peter Yount, Gib Keithly, Merlyn Giesler and Chuck Spencer. The plot concerns the attempt of an amateur theatrical group to stage a play.

Meanwhile, as Balbon said when he first sighted the Pacific ocean, "All those chasers, and me without a tank."

Guidance Clinic Planned

Through the sponsorship of the Idaho Conference Commission on Christian Vocations, a supper and guidance clinic will be held on March 14. The Wesley Fellowship of the First Church Methodist has invited BJC students to attend.

Bunny Kane and Marj Newton shine the shoes of Bob Donnelly and Jack Pocock while Fred MacDougal, Jack Newman and Tom Rhodes look on.

Speaker Tells of India's Problems

"India is an excellent breeding ground for communism as long as there remains the hunger, the disease and the illiteracy," stated Mrs. Gladys Lawther in her after-dinner speech at the I.R.C. potluck dinner, Wednesday evening. Mrs. Lawther represents both the World University Service and the national staff of Y.W.C.A. in the colleges and universities of the Pacific northwest. To prepare for her representation, Mrs. Lawther spent several weeks in Mysore, India with 100 students and faculty members from 19 countries studying the problem of underdeveloped countries. Later, she spent five weeks traveling in India observing the customs and environment of the Indian people.

According to Mrs. Lawther, there is no hope for building a new India without educated leadership.

India needs, very much, an understanding of modern agriculture and of sanitation. Without modern schools to teach this understanding, she cannot hope to progress nor can the world expect her to remain free from communism.

In reports received from Indian people who have joined W.U.S. in promoting education and in her travels, Mrs. Lawther has noted that enthusiasm and interest in education are rising. Though the schools are poor, the sanitation still not completely modern, and the needs great, the people are slowly catching on and improving.

However, the communists are putting much more into India than the United States. They are doing this mainly through the publication of books of propaganda, which can be understood and purchased by the least educated and the poorest people.

"Thanks" By Mail

A letter has been received by Dr. Baker from Fred T. Kopke, thanking the BJC student body for cooperation during the March of Dimes drive. Kopke, who is Boise campaign director of the drive, said he wished to thank Dr. Baker, Jerry Crandall and Roberta Wilson for their supervision of the activities connected with raising the funds.

Shangle Fund Gives "Auntie" A Boost

This is a scoop. This is what every reporter dreams of. There has been no crime, the school has not burned down, and coffee is still eight cents in the Union. This is the story of generosity on the part of one of our students.

For some time now, the Charlie Shangle Foundation has been carrying on a drive to send "Auntie" Delores Hansen to Europe . . . to stay. Campaign headquarters is located in room 118.

Now this idea was not meant in the first place to be complimentary to Delores. But after it became generally known that Delores would actually enjoy such a trip, many students gave cheerfully and freely of their pennies to help send their little friend to see the sights of the continent.

But Delores is not an ordinary student; when news of the Red Cross drive reached her, her little ears perked up and she murmured softly, just loudly enough for all on campus to hear, "My fund. The Red Cross can have it. All of it. I'll postpone my trip." And tears came to the eyes of Charlie, Mr. Gottenberg and Mr. Schwartz, and the Roundup staff cried openly. For this was real humanity. And on the BJC campus, yet?

Yes, this afternoon, the Delores fund will be turned in to Mr. Robert Rose, along with donations from the faculty, and he in turn will see that the Red Cross gets it.

There's the story. Delores has been generous with her money. But now is the heart-breaking part—Mr. Rose won't issue a card for the amount of 99c. Won't somebody give him one more penny? Just say it's to be added to the Charlie Shangle fund and turned over to the Red Cross.

Cultural Travel Foundation Plans Seven Week European Excursion

Another European tour is being offered by BJC in-cooperation with the Cultural Travel Foundation, according to President Eugene B. Chaffee.

A seven weeks' tour of western Europe will be led by Dr. Paul E. Baker, chairman of the sociology department and adviser to the International Relations club.

This travel group will be known as the Junior Collegiate club and will have as its theme "Western European Integration."

Among the activities scheduled to supplement the tour are university lectures, luncheons and interviews with the press.

Members of the seminar will tour Belgium, Holland, Western Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France. One feature scheduled for the tour is a boat trip down the Rhine, Chaffee said.

He added that half of each day will be devoted to exploring the theme and the other half to visiting chief points of interest, and weekends will be left to individual interests of the participants.

The tour is open to college students, professional people, businessmen or other adults interested in learning about Western Europe first hand. Membership in the tour may be arranged with or without college credit.

The group will leave New York June 30th and will return to the states the end of August. Cost of the trip which covers all essential expenses from New York and back will be $794.

Further information may be obtained from Dr. Baker.

Exec Board Meets

Morrison and Driscoll halls were unrepresented at the regular meeting of the student executive board last Thursday. Discussion centered around the importance of the dormitory students being represented in order to insure them an equal part in school activities.

Glenda Hall and Jo Coffin were appointed as a nominating committee to report this Thursday. Two vacancies must be filled in freshman class officers.

The board for the second time discussed problems in connection with football concessions for next fall. It has been decided that the Associated Student Body will prepare and sell the concessions rather than lease out the rights again. Future meetings will determine the methods of doing this.

"Dime A Shine" Makes Profit

About 25 students took advantage of the Valkyries' "Dime a Shine" day last Tuesday, only to find that the dime meant only one shine on one shoe.

All went well 'til Ken Mills showed up in field boots. He still thinks he got kipped, but the shine was fine.

Nine BJC Speakers Enter Tournament

Boise Junior College will be represented well at the 24th annual tournament of champions at Linfield College in McMinnville, Oregon, March 4, 5 and 6 when nine debaters and speakers accompanied by Mr. Wennstrom appear.

Students participating will be: Larry Smythe, William Huff, Lee Rodman, Ray Fowler, Kenneth Moore, Jack Britton, Wallace Winggar, Lora Cleary and Leonard Koprowski.

They will be entered in debate, extemporaneous, impromptu, radio, salesmanship, after dinner and experimental speech as well as interpretive acting and oratory.

Brains Plus Brawn

Football players do turn out as top students. To prove the point, two of our Bronco football players, freshman Bruce Brenn and sophomore Ed Lodge, have come up with grade point averages better than 3.5.

Lodge, with 3.812 G.P.A., a business major, is taking English composition, English literature, economy, psychology, P.E., and is going out for track for a total of 18 credit hours.

Brenn, with 3.764 G.P.A., a pre-law student, carries 17 credit hours in taking pre-law, English composition, French, general sociology, speech, biology, and is going out for track.

Former Students Receive Training

Also a naval cadet is Arthur W. Mayze, a '53 grad of BJC. He is now assigned to the U. S. Naval Auxillary Air Station, Whiting Field, Milton, Florida, where he is engaged in primary flight training.

Sleep-Learning Is Profitable, Prof!

"I slept my way through college" and Nebraska college graduate A. W. Turnbow, who received his degree last June.
 This startling statement came a complete surprise to several Turnbow's professors who had predicted his college career would end in failure.
 Last week graduate Turnbow disclosed his secret. He had been "sleep learning."
 BJC instructors who interfere with students' sleep in their classrooms are probably not up on the latest methods of learning, and will profit by reading the remainder of the above press release which may be obtained in room 118.
