Results Revealed of College Poll

Our colleges are being invaded by an atmosphere of fear and suspicion created by irresponsible investigators, hysterical community leaders and other self-appointed "thought police" who have succeeded in intimidating both our students and faculties.

This is the startling conclusion of a survey made by Andre Fontaine, reporter of colleges and universities, which serves as a basis for the article "Fear On the Campus" appearing in the April issue of Redbook magazine.

After personal interviews with students, Fontaine found that they are becoming afraid to ask questions on controversial subjects; afraid to join or support unpopular causes even when they believe them to be right; afraid to criticize our political and economic systems or try to improve them.

This story was obtained from a news release from Redbook magazine.

Man's Private Vine

Well, spring is definitely here! The snow has retreated to the highest mountains, the ice is gone from the river, ponds, Kay Shallman's finger, and the flowers are coming out. So are mid-term reports, and a rose by any other name couldn't smell more.

I intercepted this billet doux to the editor the other day in the mail office:

I love you in blue,
I love you in red,
But most of all
I love you in blue.

Saw the Bandcapades last week. The opening was a little weak, but deteriorated as it went along.

The feature piece of the concert program, the band played "Scheherazade." "Scheherazade" lost. They also played "The Stars and Stripes Forever." Save your Constate money. The South shall be again.

Seriously though, we award beautiful bundles of beautiful bouquets to BJ alumnus Fred Ghert. For the job he did for Mr. Best in arranging, directing, and producing the show. A greater love than no man.

The Word: Women are like boxes. If you don't get this one, you'll be another one along in a few minutes. After midnight there aren't so many, but they are more accommodating.

Song of the Week: Nat "King" Cole's "Answer Me, My Love." Trifle! Another great for the night.

Show of the Week: "The ... As the ads promise to peek both your eyes out.

BJC Country Gentlemen Are Tagged By Shy Misses; Invited On "Lovin' Spree"

"I wanna go on a 'Lovin' Spree', sing all the gals as they tag their fellas for the annual B-Cubes Cotton Swing to be held Friday night in the Union ballroom.

Len Davies' orchestra will provide the music for the informal hop under the light of a silvery moon. Decorations will be country style with a real lovers' lane atmosphere.

The tags, with the theme "Lovin' Spree" printed on them are presented to the boys when they are asked to the dance ... and are to be worn until Friday to ward off other gals.

Debi Lyman is general chairman. Committee chairmen include Judie Richmond, decorations; Mona Johnson, programs; Jackle Billington, decorations; Anne Hilliard, intermission; Pat Foster, tickets; and Bev Burwell, floor and door.

"The Male Animal" To Be Staged Mon.

James Thurber's and Elliot Nugent's play, "The Male Animal," is being presented Monday through Thursday of next week in the studio theatre, starting promptly at 8:15 p.m.

Director Merrill Hanson said the play, which features an all student cast, enacts a typical scene direct from college life of today.

Main theme of the story, he added, is the worry of one professor, Doyle Nelson, that his wife, Joan Armstrong, will be tempted to fall in love with her old flame—the football hero.

Also, a group of teachers and professors are running around accusing their colleagues of being "Reds" to give the play an added touch.

Cast in the production includes: Joan Armstrong, Doyle Nelson; Bunny Kane, Valmer Clayton, George E. Smith, Ernie Taylor, Shirley Brayton, Jack Britton, Ruthanne Fountain and Don Maypole.

The play is directed by Mr. Hanson, assisted by Betty Van Derck. Publicity was handled by Nancy Wanlace, and Don Maypole is business manager.

Utah Art Exhibited

Last week the art department exhibited eighteen works of the Utah Creative Artists Group. The works were by 17 different artists from that state.

An educational service was presented to the college by bringing before the art students examples of the more contemporary trends in the field of painting.

Mr. Fletcher Pearce of the engineering department, received word from the Idaho State Board of Examiners last week that he had been granted a license as a registered engineer in the state.

The license recognizes that he is especially qualified as a civil engineer. He holds registration number 830.

CLUB NEWS

Esquire Fraternity

Esquire Fraternity has received its new frat jackets. The jackets are blue with white trim. Emblems to go on the jackets are to be received within the next two weeks. The fraternity now has forty members.

It was decided by the club that when membership reaches the 50 mark, membership will be closed. All applicants will receive their acceptance cards in the mail some time before the first of next week.

Denny Weisgerber was elected new secretary because the first secretary no longer attends BJC.

F.T.A.

An Idaho Education Association delegate will be held April 23 and 24 at Lewiston, Idaho. Representing the F.T.A. will be Janice Stills, Barbara Rea and Larry Smythe.

April 27 Election Day For ABS Officers

The Lid Is Off

Ronnie Turner and Bob Crisp received their assignment in the night school photography class to take some shots of the hula dancers practicing for the Bandcapades.

During the evening the report leaked out of the dark room that had struck upon a new process for the development of 35 mm. film. In brief, they failed to remove the can or film container housing the film and as a result they were not able to get the lid on the film developing tank.

As every cloud must have a silver lining they did manage to save about a foot of the film and some of their self respect.

"It is the sincere wish of this year's student executive board that students will take a serious interest in the spring elections for the student body officers for the 1954-55 school year," said Bill Wardle, ASB vice-president in charge of elections.

"Let's be thinking about eligible candidates," added Wardle, "and also hope that the campus clubs will back candidates for these offices."

Petitions may be obtained between April 12 and 24 in room 118 and must be returned to the same office by 4 p.m., April 24.

Wardle said the campaign assembly is scheduled for April 26 at 9:45 a.m. with election the following day, April 27 in the main hall.

"Remember," said Wardle, "good student body representation is important. Let's make sure we get the best officers possible."

GIRLS TELL WHATS WRONG WITH MEN

QUESTION: "What is wrong with men?"

Anonymous: "If there is a choice between beer and women, they will take the beer."

Mrs. Bowen: "Men are so wonderful, they are always polite and thoughtful and never ever self-centered."

Lorraine Haines: "Men are terrible and inconsiderate but they are the best opposite sex we have."

M.J., J.S., M.S., & G.E.: "Terrible Four From Morrison Hall"—"Man is a worm that crawls along in the dust until some chicken snatches him up. Then he is still a worm."

Judy West: "Men are interesting but not interested in the right things, but that's a minor detail."

Donalee Paulding: "Not enough of them are educated in Salt Lake City. They should all go there and learn many things."

Janet Prokesh: "I just guess I never noticed anything ... wrong, that is!"

Kay Shallman: "Men? What men?"

A.H., B.H., & M.S.: "Three Lonesome Secretaries" — "They are all married!"

Anonymous: "Then there's Marvin Gardner as an example." (Note: Gad, what an example.—R.V.B.)

C.K.: "Inconsiderate, self-centered slob. Except for a few — that few I haven't found as yet."

Marj Newton: "Most of them are OK. Some are a little immature; some are too egotistical."

Beatrice Schenkel, senior at Saint Teresa's Academy, and Loreta Schulte, Boise high senior, chat with Mrs. Turnspeed in Morrison Hall during the open house and tea last Tuesday.

As in past years, golf instruction is again being offered to members of Coach Lyle Smith's P.E. classes. The fellows that sign up for the instructions will meet at Plantation golf course under the watchful eye of Ernie Tucker, golf pro, Wednesday mornings between 9:00 and 10:00 and Thursday and Friday afternoons at 4 p.m. Mr. Tucker will give those who have never played golf pointers in the technique of holding the club, stance, driving, putting, and will explain what a hole in one means. Those who have played golf before will receive advice and correction of any faults they have developed and then attempt to develop a birdie or an eagle. It happens to be cluttering up the golf course.

Tracksters Work Out
 Coach George Blankley says there is still one pair of pants left and for anyone interested in track to come on out and pick them up. Only trouble is they are size 32. The fellows have been working out pretty regularly despite the cold weather and mid-semester tests keeping them on the run. Loren Tedrow is having a little trouble getting started but is confident that Mary will give him a hand before the first track meet takes place.

Positions Undecided
 "We have had a few interesting baseball games this week," says Coach Lyle Smith, "but positions are still wide open. We will have a better idea of who the starting line-up will be after Monday's game with the Cobras. Tuesday's games with the Cobras of Idaho. First game is there at the second game is a double-header here Tuesday afternoon. During practice last week Jim Newman strained some of the muscles in his pitching arm after being wrapped in some tape for a few hours it seemed to be coming along fine. Humphrey Hoyle strained some muscles at the other end when sliding for home plate during one of the big squad games. It is rumored to have plopped up enough dirt to bury the Max Goin standing at first base. Jerry Hill dug them both out and that evening Hoyle was seen at the field filling in his place with a scoop.
