Madeleine Demory Hsu joined the piano faculty of the Boise State College Department of Music this Fall.

Mrs. Hsu has recently earned her Master of Science degree from the Juilliard School of Music in New York, where she held the coveted Josef Lhevinne Memorial Scholarship.

In public concerts and recitals since the age of 5, Mrs. Hsu has won many awards, prizes, and commendatory press reviews received in tours both in Europe and in South America.

In 1961 and 1962, Mrs. Hsu was declared Laureate in the International Piano Competition in Viotti, Italy, and Barcelona, Spain.

In 1969 and 1970, Mrs. Hsu appeared in several important programs in New York, including soloist in programs televised over TVNBC, Channel 6, New York, and soloist at the "Festival of Contemporary South American Music."

Mrs. Hsu's teachers have included the eminent pianists Alfred Cortot, Wilhelm Kempff, and Rosina Lhevinne.
