BOISE STATE COLLEGE

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

presents

SHIRLEY MADSEN soprano, violin

and

DAVID DURFEE baritone

in

STUDENT GRADUATION RECITAL

Mrs. C. Griffith Bratt, Accompanist

3 P.M. March 7, 1971 Music Auditorium

Given in partial fulfillment for B.M. degree in Music Education

PROGRAM

Ι

Concerto #4 in D Major (Allegro) ----- Mozart

SHIRLEY MADSEN - Violin

II

In Questa Tomba ------ Beethoven
Nina ----- Pergolesi
No, No, Si Speri ----- Carissimi

DAVID DURFEE baritone

III

 Gretchen am Spinnrade ------ Schubert

 Muth ----- Schubert

 Die Krahe ----- Schubert

 Rastlose Liebe ----- Schubert

SHIRLEY MADSEN soprano

* Mephistopheles * Serenade (Faust) ----- Gounod

DAVID DURFEE baritone

v

 Three Songs For Voice and Violin ----- Holst

SHIRLEY MADSEN soprano Cathy Portsche, Violinist

VI

Verborgenheit Wolf
Standchen Brahms
O Wusst Ich Doch Brahms
Morgen Hymne Henschel

DAVID DURFEE baritone

VII
 Duet from "Don Giovanni" ----- Mozart

SHIRLEY MADSEN soprano

DAVID DURFEE baritone

NOTES

- * Mephistopheles, accompanying himself on a Mandolin, sings this cynical, sneering serenade outside Catherina's house. She is about to bear Faust's child out of wedlock.
-  Gustav Holst has set the music to the words from "A Medieval Anthology". The songs are written without meters or key signatures.
-  The evil Don Giovanni proposes a love affair between himself and his maid Zerlina. Thinking of her husband, she is reluctant at first, but finally concents.

SHIRLEY MADSEN and DAVID DURFEE Vocal Students Of:
GEORGIA STANDING

SHIRLEY MADSEN and CATHY PORTSCHE Violin Students Of: KATHRYN MITCHELL