PROGRAM NOTES

Caligaverunt oculi mei Victoria

Then were my eyelids veiled with darkness from hours of weeping; for my sovereign Lord was far from me, He that should restore my soul.

Spanish Carols anonymous

Dadme albricias, hijos d'Eva

Sons of Eve, reward my tidings!

Why should we make gifts to you?

Born is He, the Adam new.

Almighty God, what glad tidings.

Pay my boon, and sing for joy,

For tonight is born our Savior,

The Messiah promised to us,

Man and God, a virgin's boy

By His birth He gives us pardon

For the sin and wrong we do.

E la don don, Verges Maria anonymous

O holy Saint, Sweet Virgin Mary,

Let's all dance and sing, for our loving Queen

Listen Lads, tonight on earth has a Virgin

given birth, to a son of peerless worth,

Like none other ever seen.

Beethoven - Mass in C, Opus 86, composed in 1807, first performed at Palace of Count Esterhazy, Haydn's patron. Published in 1812 and dedicated to Prince Ferdinand Kinsky. The commissioning of the work caused postponement of the 5th Symphony. The work was written in 2 months and made very little impression, as musicians felt that "Beethoven could not contrive choruses with rounded effects and singable solos." Beethoven was 37 at the time of this composition

Van Delden--a Dutch music critic has written this selection with a string ensemble in mind, but to be performed with voices. There are no words.
