MEISTERSINGERS

Caligaverunt

Then were my eyelids veiled with darkness from hours of weeping;
for my sovereign Lord was far from me,
He that should restore my soul.
Come all ye people now behold:
See if there be sorrowing like this my sorrow
Come ye people all who travel this highway, give heed to me and behold me.

Vision of Peace Jean Berger

I

My dwelling is removed and is carried away from me as a shepherd's tent.
My country is desolate, my cities are burned
with fire.
The highways lie waste, no one passeth by the road
The grass is withered away, there is no green thing
The land mourneth and languisheth

II

Woe to them that destroy, and they were not destroyed.
Woe to them that despise, and they were not despised.
Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity, desolation, and destruction
The way of peace, they know not;
and there is no justice in their doings,
When they have ceased to despise, they shall be despised,
The fire shall burn them and their fire shall not be quenched.
When they have made an end of destroying, they shall be destroyed.

III

My dwelling is removed

IV

Let all the nations be gathered together; and let the peoples be assembled!
Come near, ye nations, to hear; Assemble yourselves and come,
and hearken ye peoples
Cry aloud, lift up your voice like a trumpet.
Give ear, all ye lands afar off, let the earth
hear and the world: Peace
Peace to him that is far off and peace to him that is near

V

Violence shall no more be heard in the land, wasting nor destruction within the borders, the land that was desolation and the dry land shall be glad,
The desert shall rejoice and blossom as a rose.
A man shall be more precious than gold
And my people shall abide in the beauty of peace.
They shall not build and another inhabit.
They shall not plant and another eat.
They shall not labor in vain.
They shall build houses and inhabit them.
There shall be peace
Nations shall not lift up sword against nation!
And the ransomed shall return and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads
They shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.
