Christmas Comes to Morrison Hall

Signs of the Christmas spirit appeared at Morrison Hall December 10, when the holiday carolers from the Student Council, dressed in their festive wear, set up their equipment in the auditorium. The traditional tree was decorated with lights and ornaments, and the students were treated to a variety of holiday-themed activities.

New Year's Resolutions...

The annual Bonce Junior College Christmas program will be held December 15, 8:30 in the auditorium. The cast includes Fred Simmons, Josephine Williams, and other student actors. The program will feature a variety of musical and dramatic performances, including a special segment on the history of the holiday season.

Interfaith Council Christmas Program

The annual holiday program will take place December 14, 7:30, featuring performances by various religious and cultural groups. The event is open to the public and is free of charge. For more information, please contact the college's administration office.
Odds and Ends...

Another very interesting facet of BJC like most other days this week-end is that the fellows on campus don't have to dance with girls. At least the Union might dance the place was packed, at least at one time, with girls and boys and gals and gals, but that for the most part, both sexes were there. Why, this happens to BJC, but, dear children, in the main because they are forced to dance at least, with them in occasional favor and dance a couple of rounds.

The quality of the music at the dances is usually excellent, the variety good so theHeaderText of Union might be attributed to the personnel.

Could it be absences on the part of the girls? Are they too tired to traipse across the floor and ask a gal to dance? Or do men no longer care for women? Throughout the century we noticed guys and gals... and gals and gals, and now, obviously recorded in his music conversation and completely ignoring the rest of the activities. Next week, we are afraid to look in the books of the personnel.

So much for that... Let's turn to something a bit more serious. Not merely because every college publication in the country is prepared on the situation, but merely because it is the main event of the year to speak of such things, but because we think the subject is one that has been much neglected. Our leading article this week is entitled "The Advantages of a War on Juvenile Delinquency." It is very timely. The D.J.C.A. club is nothing to be scolded at, nothing to be passed over lightly. It is a weekly association, always looking for members, gladly accepting college students.

The roads are dry and dusty. May our tall, handsome, loyal yea-r over the holidays! Although we make a practice of inviting the student body to a fair offer, we DO want you back with us next semester. If only for our own benefit by having able minds among future editors.

New Year's Resolutions

1. Read at least one good book each week.

3. Commit suicide. "The Executioner and His Men..."

4. Drink less coffee. If you are not completely, get your coffee at the Student Union coffee rootless wins love at the Student Union coffee rootless wins love.

5. Learn to control your temper.

6. Get a job every time you want to look for work. (I must look how to do this.)

7. Don't say anything about the college in a Greaseball's ears. I must look how to do this.

8. Learn to think originally.

Following the customs of past years, the Roundup staff associated with the Student Union made a solemn promise in writing in return for their help for what they wanted for Christmas. Arthur Hag is listing what he wants and what he is going to get something. Left to right, Marvin Retear, Sallie Selig, Neil Woll, Benia Manley and Bill Sall.

Don't know what you mean. This note should be signed, "Spend your money. Bob Filter expense of $3.50."

The committee is headed by Chef Breda, social chairman. Other chairmen are Marilyn Helgeson, decorations; Brum McNally, programs; Jim Woolard, invitations; Bill Bils, tickets; Mel Jensen, liner and door, and Roberta Alworth, intermission.

Anyone who would like to work on the dance may notify Chef or Mrs. Turnpied.

A Christmas Caroling Party was held Saturday evening. The party was attended by students and faculty members. The program included carols, readings, and a short talk by Dr. Al Neiswanger, president of the college.

The gymnasium has been completed and is now ready for use. The building was completed in time for the new semester, and the gym is expected to be fully functional by the end of the year.

The new gymnasium will be a welcome addition to Boise Junior College's fast-growing campus, a building as useful as it is decorative.

INTERFAITH COUNCIL

The next Interfaith Council meeting will be held by Reverend Case of the Second Presbyterian church. All students are cordially invited to attend.

Ricks, NNC Open Season with Wins

Now that the 75-56 hoop season is underway and most all of the Broncs opponents have played at least twice, it appears that every one of these opponents are going to be tough.

At the present it looks like the Crusaders of Northwest Nazarene and the Vikings of Ricks have the teams to beat. Over Nampa way NNC has played four and won two. The victories were impressive enough through a 70-53 victory over Westminster and a 73-52 win over Eastern Oregon. Defeats were at the hands of the Harlem Globetrotters 81-34 and PCC College of Idaho 74-70.

In other Rocky MountainJC games, Ricks beat Western Montana 78 to 71 and Southern Utah beat the first California opponent, Chaffey, 79 to 67. Salt Lake City is independent, Westminster, has played three games and the Pirates have won only one. The Pirates lost to NNC and Western Montana 59-79. The following night Westminster beat Western Montana 64-54.
