Gail Fulton Selected Homecoming Queen; Technical Trades Football Theme Cops First Prize In Float Contest

Highlighting halftime at the annual Homecoming game Saturday afternoon was the crowning of Gail Fulton as the 1956 Homecoming queen by Dorrell Houen, chairman of the year's Homecoming. She was selected Thursday by the male rule of the court. Sponsored by the Encouragers club, Gail was chosen from a group of five finalists, Miriam Woodhouse, sponsored by Practi-Smart, Shirley Purse, sponsored by the German Club, Joetta Mueller, sponsored by the Inter-fraternity Knightly and Area Senior sponsored by the Engineers.

According to a black dress and a newly acquired diamond tiara, Gail was crowned Saturday night during the intermission of the Homecoming Dance by Ron Burton, student body vice-president. She and her four attendants were then foyered by the rendition of the theme song, "Monstore, Are Made of This," by Ron Burton and John Larson. Fulton was the John flowers and Joetle Larson among several floats which were deemed very appropriate to the atmosphere of the event.

FIRST PRIZE WINNER... The annual Homecoming Parade was held in Boise, Idaho, on November 17. The parade which formed on Third and Sixth streets consisted of approximately 30 floats. The fire floats, N 03, 04, Woodrow Wilson and Boise Junior College, provided the music for the parade. The director of the band was

Mr. Fred Smith, NY . Men's, Mr. V. E. Fournier, Men's; Mr. Kenneth

Oneiaven, Boise, Mr. John Latham; Boise Junior College, Mr. John

There was also a number of decorated cars, some very old and some new. The organizations which had floats on the parade were: Homecoming, Phi Kappa, Sigma Alpha, Sigma Chi, and several others.

The winners of the best floats were announced during the halftime.

The float which placed first was the Technical Trades, which was a small football field with an outline in the mud and a home coming banner, "Hands Off Our Students." The second winner was the Inter-fraternity Knightly, Valleyballs, FFA, R.F. A., Student Council,

A W S, Gamma Phi Beta and others.

The winners of the best floats which were being built as it went down the street in the parade.

The best floats which took part in the Homecoming and parade downtown that morning, played several arrangements and done some special marching movements on the football field. As a closing number, all the bands met on the field to play the Star

Sponsored Harmony while the Big Rig was raised.

Teacher of the Week

Miss Johanna DeMeyer, or Judy

Miss Johanna DeMeyer, or Judy, of most of the students, is the pretty math and biology instructor in the science building. Her classes meet Monday through Thursday at St. Luke's hospital and formal classes here at the campus. She has been with us a year, and was graduated from Michigan High School.

"Hotel Universe" To Be Performed December 5 and 6

Casting has been almost completed for the brilliant play "Hotel Universe." It was directed by William Schachtke, BJC'S speech and drama instructor, and the player's progress is going very well. The cast is coming along much faster than LeRoy thought, and he feels it is going to be an excellent show.

"Hotel Universe" is a play that combines comedy, fantasy, and drama. It comprises a group of Americans who have come to visit an old friend of theirs, Ann Field, who has resolved herself in a house on the French coast to take care of her sick daughter, Stephen Field, who was taken away from her by illness. The visitors become friends with Ann and they all keep growing up. And this is exactly what happens to them.

Miss DeMeyer was the part of Fat Fairly, Stephen Field played by Bob Mandell, Ann Field by22 Alice Odell, and Mary, Stephen's wife, by Miss Delia. Hope, Ann's daughter, by Jack Meyer, and Ann's son, by Mary Willard.

The play will be presented at the BJC University Auditorium on December 5 and 6.

Frosh Officers Are Sworn Into Office

On Tuesday afternoon at approximately 2:00 o'clock, the officers of the Frosh class took the Oath of Office, administered by President Joseph F. Twomey, 36.

The oath of office was administered by President Joseph F. Twomey, 36, and the Frosh officers of the class were sworn in to office.

The atmosphere of the oath was very uninteresting. The officers, instead of proposing the "hand in," however, rather than the usual "hand in," the officers proposed the "hand over." The result was that the oath was administered in a very uninteresting manner.

The presence of President Joseph F. Twomey, 36, added to the dignity of the occasion. The officers, it is true, showed no interest in the occasion, but they were more than willing to take the oath.

VETS CORNER
Veterans Administration is conducting a survey of the cases of over 5,000 veterans who are now disabled in the armed services, for the purpose of determining their status to date. In the northeastern states and Alaska, the survey will involve approximately 3,000 veterans. In the survey, conducted by trained employees, all veterans 50 percent or more disabled will be found eligible for additional compensation because of dependency.

Vets Corner will be established by the VA. The survey is expected to be completed by January 31, 1955, and the veterans and the families of disabled veterans have not been brought up to date since then.

Preliminary results of the survey indicate that many veterans who are entitled to additional compensation because of additional children who are not receiving the amounts due them because they have failed to establish the fact that they are entitled to VA.

These are also veterans who are entitled to additional compensation because of additional children who are not receiving the amounts due them because they have failed to establish the fact that they are entitled to VA.

Boise's Grid Machine Halts Wenatchee
As Gem State Crew Wins Homecoming

Boise's bowl-minded Broncos readily prompted Wenatchee, Washington, to a 33-6 score in a large Homecoming crowd last Saturday afternoon at Bronco Stadium.

The victory gave coach Lyle Smith's team an 8-0 slate for this season, raising the capital team's season record to seven wins and three ties.

This also includes four bowl games, of which the Blue-Orange teams have won two and lost two.

Kuan Leue Smith, on his side of the scoreboard, right half George Kane ran up the first score of the afternoon with less than two minutes gone in the first period with a bayard run. Lefty Garland converted, and Boise took a 7-0 lead.

Moments later halfback Dick Rody intercepted a Wenatchee pass to set up Boise's second tally.

This first-quarter touchdown, crossed the goal line standing up Garland's partially-blocked PAT hit the crossbar, leaving:
