BJS and Boise C of C Sponsor Business Management Conference

The Small Business—Management conference of the State Junior College Association will be held at the Boise Junior College on Thursday, January 30, 1954.

This conference, sponsored by Boise Junior College and Boise Chamber of Commerce, is in cooperation with the Idaho Rockville Chamber of Commerce. The program, which will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., will include sessions on "Small Business Management" and "Why Businessmen Should Be".

The speaker will be A. E. Hoffman, executive vice president of the Idaho State Bank of Boise.

A special event of the conference will be the "Business Management" contest, which will be held at 10 a.m. in the Main Building.

This contest will be divided into two sections: an individual section and a group section. The individual section will consist of three questions on small business management, and the group section will consist of a group presentation on the subject.

The conference is open to all Idaho junior college students, and"small business" will be defined as any business with a payroll of less than $50,000.

The event is sponsored by Boise Junior College and Boise Chamber of Commerce. The program is scheduled for 10 a.m. at the Boise Junior College, and will be broadcast nationally on NBC Radio and NBC TV.

The program is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. at the Hyatt Regency in Nashville, Tenn., and will be broadcast nationally on NBC Radio and NBC TV. Visitors, including players, coaches, and officials, will be in attendance.
