Roundup, October 28

Associated Students of Boise Junior College
We're 1958 Homecoming was brought to a colorful climax Saturday night, following a week of activities, with the semi-formal, alumni-honoring dance in the WCI gymnasium to the theme of ‘Midnight in Vermont’ and the music of Gib Hochstrasser and his band.

During the half-time ceremonies of the football game between BJC and the Compton JC ‘Tartars’ in Bronco stadium, Nancy Joy Grange, sophomore from Arco, Idaho, was crowned ‘Homecoming Queen.’

The winning float in the downtown parade Saturday morning was that of the Esquire club, with the Golden Z’s and the Pi Sigma Alpha named second and third.

Final Picture Deadline
Mr. Franklin Carr, Boise State photographer, announced that October 29 will be the last day for the annual pictures.

This last day will be for students who had been growing beards, new faculty members wearing pictures and students who have not yet been able to have their photographs taken.

Zontas Honor
BJC Registrar
Elma I. Gockley, acting registrar at BJC, was recently installed as governor of district eight of Zonta International, at a formal installation service in the Starlight room at the Elks lodge.

This installation culminated a two-day conference of district eight Zontians, held last week in conjunction with annual meetings in Washington, Oregon, British Columbia and Idaho.

District Eight is comprised of 25 clubs in the above area with a total of 777 members. Miss Gockley will act as governor for this district for the ensuing two years. During this time, she will serve on the Zonta International board with headquarters in Chicago. It will be her duty to represent district eight at all board meetings whenever called by the international president for district and special activities of district eight Zontians.

Zonta International is a world-wide, non-profit, non-political service organization.

Other entries in the float competition were those of the Valley, Intercollegiate Knights, Morris and Trask Hall, Student National Education association, T-Cubes, Engineers’ club, Newman club, German club, Tau Alpha Pi, Roger Willimans club and the Associated Women Students.

Ranks from BJC and Vale, Oregon, Fruitland, Emmett, Donnelly, McCall, Burns and Boise high schools also marched in the parade and performed in Bronco stadium.

At Friday’s Union Night dance, Dick Snyder was chosen ‘King Bear’ from more than 20 contestants vying for the honor.

CAMPUS QUERY
By Thomas C. Dooley

What is the campus like?

The campus is filled with large green areas, but it is so spacious that it is difficult to imagine the campus being filled with people. Cutting through the open spaces, however, there are buildings that form a tight grid, creating a sense of order and purpose.

Is there a place for sports in the campus?

The campus has a number of athletic facilities, including a stadium and a pool. It also has a number of outdoor activities, such as hiking and camping.

Is there a social scene on campus?

The campus has a variety of social activities, including parties, concerts, and sports events. It is also home to a number of clubs and organizations, which provide opportunities for students to get involved and make new friends.

Is there a sense of community on campus?

The campus has a strong sense of community, with students and faculty working together to create a supportive and inclusive environment. This sense of community is reflected in the campus's commitment to diversity and inclusivity.

Is there a sense of tradition on campus?

The campus has a rich history and tradition, with a number of important events and figures that have shaped its development. This tradition is reflected in the campus's architecture, its arts and cultures, and its academic programs.

Broncos Take Big Homecoming Game By Hard-Fought 21-8 Win Over Compton

The BSC Broncos overcame the big home crowd and Compton on a 21-8 defeat before 8,500 Homecoming fans, Saturday.

The Tartar capitalized on a break early in the game, when a wide receiver from the BSC broke through the 34-yard line and scored in the corner.

Two plays later, a quarterback sneak gave the Tartars a one-point lead. The two-point conversion was good to raise the score eight to nothing for Compton.

This was only the second touchdown scored against the Broncos this year, it might even be called a gift, although not intentional. The play set up a pass

The first break for the Broncos came early in the second quarter, when fullback Fred Cauliflower scored against the Broncos. The pass was good for a 10-8 lead. The two-point conversion was stopped by the Broncos to keep the score at 10-8.

In the closing seconds of the first half, the Tartars threatened again with their most effective weapon, the pass. A fourth down was good for 48 yards to the BSC yard line, where Francis Wallace dropped the ball after he threw the pass to the Tartars for an eight-yard loss.

Fred Cauliflower, Broncos halfback, holds tight to the ball after punching one yard to BSC’s 12 yard line, during a game

Athlete of the Week

Herman Novak

The wheat-shed of the week, athlete halfback Herman Novak stood the man in the rough on the number two.

A willing passer and receiver, Novak shows promise as one of the best backs in the game.

To Novak’s credit, the game was much as he had practiced for weeks. He played his full part to perfection.
