The Investigate Boise Community Research Series publishes fact-based essays of popular scholarship concerning the problems and values that shape metropolitan growth.

VOL. 1:
Making Livable Places: Transportation, Preservation, and the Limits of Growth
(2010)

VOL. 2:
Growing Closer: Density and Sprawl in the Boise Valley
(2011)

VOL. 3:
Down and Out in Ada County: Coping with the Great Recession, 2008-2012
(2012)

VOL. 4:
Local, Simple, Fresh: Sustainable Food in the Boise Valley
(2013)

VOL. 5:
Becoming Basque: Ethnic Heritage on Boise’s Grove Street
(2014)

VOL. 6:
River by Design: Essays on the Boise River, 1915-2015
(2015)

VOL. 7:
The Other Idahoans: Forgotten Stories of the Boise Valley
(2016)
The Investigate Boise Community Research Series publishes fact-based essays of popular scholarship concerning the problems and values that shape metropolitan growth.

VOL. 1:
Making Livable Places: Transportation, Preservation, and the Limits of Growth
(2010)

VOL. 2:
Growing Closer: Density and Sprawl in the Boise Valley
(2011)

VOL. 3:
Down and Out in Ada County: Coping with the Great Recession, 2008-2012
(2012)

VOL. 4:
Local, Simple, Fresh: Sustainable Food in the Boise Valley
(2013)

VOL. 5:
Becoming Basque: Ethnic Heritage on Boise’s Grove Street
(2014)

VOL. 6:
River by Design: Essays on the Boise River, 1915-2015
(2015)

VOL. 7:
The Other Idahoans: Forgotten Stories of the Boise Valley
(2016)

Generous support was provided by the Patricia Herman Fund and Professor Emeritus Errol D. Jones.

ISBN: 978-0-9907363-4-9

2016
Todd Shallat, editor
Colleen Brennan, managing editor
Molly Humphreys, research associate
Toni Rome, graphic designer
Corey Cook, dean of School of Public Service

BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY
School of Public Service
1910 University Drive – MS 1900
Boise, ID 83725
tshalla@boisestate.edu
(208) 761-0485
sps.boisestate.edu/publications

Generous support was provided by the Patricia Herman Fund and Professor Emeritus Errol D. Jones.

ISBN: 978-0-9907363-4-9

2016
Contents

Preface ........................................................................................................ 8
    Todd Shallat

1 Boise’s Forgotten Pandemic ................................................................. 10
    Headstones mark the city’s deadliest virus.
    Mistie Rose

2 Dollar a Day .......................................................................................... 18
    Mobs rioted against Japanese workers on the Oregon Short Line.
    Julie Okamura

3 Unfit for Habitation ............................................................................. 28
    Paupers and the elderly labored at the county’s poor farm.
    Namanny Asmussen

4 Hammer and Drill ................................................................................ 36
    A gold mine recalls the grueling work of dangerous jobs.
    Emily Fritchman

5 Razing Levy’s Alley ........................................................................... 42
    Civic leaders crusaded against prostitution.
    Nicholas Canfield

6 Women Behind Bars ........................................................................... 50
    Vulnerable women paid poverty’s price.
    Ceci Thunes

7 God and Reclamation ......................................................................... 65
    Farmers waited decades for water.
    Roy Cuellar

7 Gallery: Out of the Dust ..................................................................... 74

8 Nazis on the Homefront ..................................................................... 84
    Boise Valley farmers enlisted prisoners of war.
    Susan Hook

9 South of the Tracks ............................................................................ 94
    Housing segregation isolated the marginalized.
    Pam Demo

10 Hard Times at Chula Vista ................................................................. 107
    Braceros made community in Wilder’s migrant camps.
    Anna Webb

10 Hard Places Driving Tour ................................................................. 122

Credits and Sources ................................................................................ 135