Credits and Sources

In the summer of 2015, in a downtown classroom, 10 sleuths and scholars-in-training began a search for stories of the underprivileged from history’s bottom rung. Two professionals, two graduate students, and six undergraduates were the principal investigators. Todd Shallit, working with Colleen Brennan and Molly Humphreys, co-authored chapters 1, 3, 5, and 7, weaving threads into narrative prose. We gratefully acknowledge vital assistance from Steve Barrett, Amber Beierle, John Bertram, Kristof Bihari, Sarah Doering, Jenaleigh Kiebert, John Martinson, and Anna Webb.

Chapter 1: Boise’s Forgotten Pandemic

Idaho Statesman, 1918-1919.

Reeves, R. S. “Cholangitis Following Influenza.” United States Naval Medical Bulletin 13, no. 3 (1919): 557-558.

Chapter 2: Dollar a Day

Idaho Statesman, 1892-1893.

“Japanese on the Move.” Caldwell Tribune, July 30, 1892.

Opposite: Livery stable on Bannock at 9th, about 1930

Next Page: Migrant farm boy in an FSA work camp, 1936
Credits and Sources

In the summer of 2015, in a downtown classroom, 10 sleuths and scholars-in-training began a search for stories of the underprivileged from history’s bottom rung. Two professionals, two graduate students, and six undergraduates were the principal investigators. Todd Shallat, working with Colleen Brennan and Molly Humphreys, co-authored chapters 1, 3, 5, and 7, weaving threads into narrative prose. We gratefully acknowledge vital assistance from Steve Barrett, Amber Beierle, John Bertram, Kristof Bihari, Sarah Doering, Jenaleigh Kiebert, John Martinson, and Anna Webb.

Chapter 1: Boise’s Forgotten Pandemic
Idaho Statesman, 1918-1919.
Reeves, R. S. “Cholangitis Following Influenza.” United States Naval Medical Bulletin 13, no. 3 (1919): 557-558.

Chapter 2: Dollar a Day
Idaho Statesman, 1892-1893.
“Japanese on the Move.” Caldwell Tribune, July 30, 1892.

Opposite: Livery stable on Bannock at 9th, about 1930
Next Page: Migrant farm boy in an FSA work camp, 1936

Chapter 3: Unfit for Habitation

An Act to Provide for the Care of the Poor in Ada County. Passed by the Fourteenth Session of the Legislative Assembly, February 8, 1883, Remaining in Force, June 1, 1887.

An Act to Provide for the Indigent Insane in the Territory of Idaho. Passed by the Eleventh Session of the Territorial Legislature, 1881.

Haber, Carole. “‘And the Fear of the Poorhouse’: Perceptions of Old Age Impoverishment in Early Twentieth-Century America.” Generations 17, no. 2 (1993): 46-49.

Chapter 4: Hammer and Drill

Bell, Robert N. “Pearl Mining District, Once Abandoned, Now Booming.” Capital News (Boise), August 31, 1935.

Chapter 5: Razing Levy’s Alley

“Boise Urban Renewal Project Map.” Capital City Development Corporation Public Records, Box 7, Appraisals, Project Area 1, Document no. 28.

“Commercial Sites and Sales Listings.” Capital City Development Corporation Public Records, Box 7, Appraisals, Project Area 1, Document no. 24.

Idaho Statesman, 1892-1897.
Chapter 3: Unfit for Habitation

An Act to Provide for the Care of the Poor in Ada County. Passed by the Fourteenth Session of the Legislative Assembly, February 8, 1883, Remaining in Force, June 1, 1887.

An Act to Provide for the Indigent Insane in the Territory of Idaho. Passed by the Eleventh Session of the Territorial Legislature, 1881.

Chapter 4: Hammer and Drill

Bell, Robert N. “Pearl Mining District, Once Abandoned, Now Booming.” Capital News (Boise), August 31, 1935.

Chapter 5: Razing Levy’s Alley

“Boise Urban Renewal Project Map.” Capital City Development Corporation Public Records, Box 7, Appraisals, Project Area 1, Document no. 28.

“Commercial Sites and Sales Listings.” Capital City Development Corporation Public Records, Box 7, Appraisals, Project Area 1, Document no. 24.

Chapter 6: Women Behind Bars

Chapter 7: God and Reclamation

Chapter 8: Nazis on the Homefront

Chapter 6: Women Behind Bars

Kendrick, Katie (Compiler). The Old Idaho State Penitentiary: Female State Biographies. Research compiled by Boise State University, 2010-2011.

Chapter 7: God and Reclamation

Chapter 8: Nazis on the Homefront

