Contents

Foreword .............................................................................. 8

1 Improbable Sanctuary ........................................................ 10
The city of Boise defies red-state stereotypes.
Todd Shallat

2 Across the Pacific ............................................................... 26
Vietnamese, displaced by war, plant roots in the City of Trees.
Kathleen Rubinow Hodges

3 Chosen to Survive............................................................... 46
A Bosnian, cut down by shrapnel, sees his life as a miracle.
Refik Sadikovic with Kathleen Rubinow Hodges

Verse: Living Witness by Fidel Mwendambali Nshombo .............. 68

4 Leave One to Remember .................................................... 70
A child’s name bears witness to his mother’s Rwandan struggle.
Laura Winslow

5 Food of the Pharaohs ......................................................... 80
Tiny teff, grown in Idaho, helps preserve Ethiopian heritage.
Emily Fritchman

Gallery: World Refugee Day ............................................... 86

6 Nations United ................................................................... 96
Kids from many countries build one strong team.
Katherine Jones

7 Policing Softly .................................................................. 118
Boise police nurture community.
Chelsee Boehm

Verse: Blue by Ruby McCarter and Daniah Kadhim .................. 128

8 Hidden, Silent, Confused .................................................... 130
A survivor negotiates Boise and adolescence.
Belma Sadikovic with Todd Shallat

9 A Wider Perspective .......................................................... 138
Three lives – Eritrean, Bhutanese, and Afghan – help Boise see itself.
Aileen Hale with Kathleen Rubinow Hodges

Verse: Always Home by Zoey Hills and Paw Kee Lar ................. 152

10 A Matter of Trust ............................................................. 154
Teachers help refugees cope.
Kathleen Mullen

Epilogue ............................................................................ 172
Hysteria challenges a city’s commitment to human rights.
Errol D. Jones

Credits and Sources ......................................................... 179