Nearly 1 out of every 100 people worldwide is a person displaced and seeking asylum, imperiled by persecution and war. Half the World takes measure of that staggering crisis in stories from a city transformed.

“Compelling. Anyone who wants to understand the people we label ‘refugees’ must read this book.”
- JAN REEVES, DIRECTOR, IDAHO OFFICE FOR REFUGEES

“Magnificent. The stories inspire equal parts joy and heartbreak. They are essential reading, and are now as much a part of Idaho’s history as any other chronicle.”
- GEORGE PRENTICE, NEWS EDITOR, THE BOISE WEEKLY
