Roundup Staff To Hold Open House For Faculty, Nov. 30

"Proud as a peacock" would be an adequate expression for Miss Allison and her Roundup staff. The newspaper has a mouth of its own at last. It is housed in the basement of the Science building. The staff is so pleased with itself and donations, they have decided to have "open house" for faculty and other guests, November 30, from 2:00 to 5:00.

The Roundup staff is anxious to show off their new office. Come and see how and where your campus newspaper is made up. Refreshments will be served.

Philippine National Elections
President Carlos P. Garcia and Diosdado Macapagal battled it to the end for presidential office. It appears, however, that Vice President Diosdado Macapagal, liberal party leader, will be Philippines president, though Macapagal refused to make official claim of victory until Garcia conceded. In the hot run for vice president, Manuel Polintan of Macapagal's Liberal party was first; close behind was independent Sergio Osmeña, son of the late President, and trailing was G.J. Palat of Garcia's Nacionalista party. Though Macapagal's Liberal party may gain victory for the Liberal party, it appears, however, that Garcia's Nacionalista party will regain control of congress, maintaining control of the House, though the Liberal party appeared to be assured of six out of eight Senate seats.

U.S.-Russia Plans Disarmament Talks

In a recent meeting Deputy Foreign Ministers Valerie A. Zorin in U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson a draft resolution which he hopes both countries will sponsor: The draft, which would create a negotiating body to divide equal, by armaments, Commonwealth and Neutral nations, June 30, 1962, as the deadline for general disarmament, was stated in its form. for disarmament

Zorin devoted the bulk of his speech to a detailed exposition of Soviet Premier Krushchev's plan for general and complete disarmament. He said the Soviets plan "corrected over disarmament" and not "corrected over armaments," Stevenson, however, emphasized Kennedy's disarmament as a radical approach to disarmament that its aim was "total elimination of national capacity to make international war."

Giranga Leads Mutiny

A mutiny of 2000 Congo troops is being led by Leoite Antoine Giranga in East Congo against central government authority in Kinshasa. The 13 Italian air- men which according to Kinshasa arrested and beat Nov. 11, were reported killed by Congolese troops. The troops have also arrested Europeans and Africans and looted houses.

After several weeks in Bantam, Texas, hospital, Thursday morning, Nov. 16, marked the death of T. H. Roundup's editor. The former San Antonio High School principal, said his two loves were for his career and for his House of Representatives. Funeral services were held Saturday at Bantam, Texas, with President Kennedy attending.
THANKSGIVING DAY, 1961

THANKSGIVING is fast becoming a “lost weekend”--but that, is between Halloween and Christmas. Thanksgiving never seemed to be much of a holiday, but this year’s day for ghosts and goblins was missed, perhaps, by which got up by those young people who think or treated for UNICEF. And it well is well established now that Christmas is the most commercialized season of the year. Store windows already contain displays of “Peace on Earth” or Santa and his reindeer; for months there have been ads of “Layaway now for Christmas; and last week saw December 1961, a day of being thankful that dishes are washed, and thankfulness shouldn’t give thanks for what we have and then try to see how we give thanks this Thanksgiving, let’s remember not to com-

Boise Broncos Down
By New Mexico Military

By Bob Burr

The Boise Junior College Broncos dropped their fifth and final game of the season Saturday at Howard, New Mexico. The Broncos appeared to have the game under control until the last minutes from the New Mexico Military Institute.

The Broncos were led into the game by Bob Sullivan of the East Mississippi Junior College.

Excitement this week in the Boise stadium was the result of the University of Idaho over Montana. The winning margin was prevented by a field goal by the toe of John Edmundson of the Idaho

On Saturday, Boise will play against the New Mexico Military Institute.
