BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of Boise Junior College was this year composed of Oliver O. Haga, Chairman; Ben W. Oppenheim, who recently resigned and was replaced by Senator E. D. Baird; Mrs. Alfred Budge, Sr.; J. J. Chapman; Ralph W. York; Harry L. Yost; and the Right Reverend Frederick B. Bartlett, D. D., Bishop of Idaho of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Mr. York, as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Boise Independent School District, is ipso-facto a member of the board. Mr. Haga has served continuously as chairman of the board since the college changed its status from a school under the Episcopal Church to a private corporation in 1934. Mr. Oppenheim served continuously as vice-chairman of the board until his resignation this year.

Clyde F. Potter served the first two years as secretary to the board and the last three years as secretary-treasurer. Mr. Oppenheim, Mr. E. A. Crooks, who was replaced by Mr. Yost, and Mr. Lynn Driscoll, who was replaced by Mr. York, are the only former members of the board not serving at the present time. All but the ipso-facto member of the board are elected by the members of the corporation.

The members of the board are prominent Boise business and professional men, who have unselfishly devoted their time and energies gratis to the college since its establishment.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Board of Boise Junior College is the legislative branch of that body. In its capable hands are placed the many student body problems. Meetings are held every Monday evening with Eleanor Burns presiding. Among its duties are the allotting of the student body fund, the appointing of the editor of the school annual, and the choosing of yell leaders and activities managers. Generally speaking, it is the duty of this body to approve all student activities of the Boise Junior College.

This year the Executive Board was comprised of Eleanor Burns, Associated Student Body President; Virginia Stewart, Vice President; Lone Nordquist, Secretary; Tom Coffin, Treasurer; Dortha Power, Sophomore Women's Representative; John Mather, Sophomore Men's Representative; Elizabeth Buck, Freshman Women's Representative; and Donald MacLeod, Freshman Men's Representative. Douglas B. Cruikshank was faculty advisor.

TRIBUNAL

Just as every self-governing body must have its judiciary, so the Associated Student Body of Boise Junior College has its Tribunal. The offices are elective, and the members are sophomores who are chosen at the same time as the student body officers. This body is brought into action when the Executive Board brings charges and acts as prosecutor before it. All misdemeanors of fellow students are justly treated. Members of the Tribunal this year included Max Bell, Virginia Leach, and Ernest Day. Norman B. Adkison was faculty advisor.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The Social Committee of Boise Junior College arranges all social events of the student body, supervises them, and sees that they function properly. The reins of the committee this year were in the capable hands of Margaret Rosenheim. Students serving on her committee were: Kenneth Coleman, June Barker, James Armstrong, Helen Marr Archibald, Stanley McCorkle, and Donald Calhoon. Mrs. Camille B. Power, Dean of Women, acted as faculty advisor. The outstanding events supervised by this committee were the spring formal and the annual barbecue.
