

Contents

	Introduction	6
1	Rain on Snow	8
	Climate change steepens the challenge of forecasting floods. Roy V. Cuellar
2	Raising Arrowrock	16
	Bigger has always been better for the builders of Arrowrock Dam. Richard Martinez
3	Water, Earth, and Gender	32
	Two great American writers tell parallel stories of conquest. Erin Nelson
4	Float, Paddle, and Surf	46
	River sports make a tourist attraction. Travis Armstrong
5	History along the Greenbelt	62
	Relics and storied places connect Boise to frontier past. Doug Copsey, with Todd Shallat
6	The Waterfront District	74
	Garden City bridges the river via parks and urban renewal. Sheila Spangler
7	Crowding the Suburban Floodplain	90
	At Eagle Island, developers build castles on sand. Emily Berg
8	Daylighting Caldwell	99
	Urban renewal transforms an asphalt floodway. Dean Gunderson
9	Draining Dixie	110
	An urban-rural alliance is changing the way Boise manages waste. Michael Gosney
10	Wildlife Preservation	122
	Parks and conservation protect the creatures of the Boise River. Mike Medberry
	Selected Sources	132