

Contents

	Preface	8
	Todd Shallat
1	Boise's Forgotten Pandemic	10
	Headstones mark the city's deadliest virus.
	Mistie Rose
2	Dollar a Day	18
	Mobs rioted against Japanese workers on the Oregon Short Line.
	Julie Okamura
3	Unfit for Habitation	28
	Paupers and the elderly labored at the county's poor farm.
	Namanny Asmussen
4	Hammer and Drill	36
	A gold mine recalls the grueling work of dangerous jobs.
	Emily Fritchman
5	Razing Levy's Alley	42
	Civic leaders crusaded against prostitution.
	Nicholas Canfield
6	Women Behind Bars	50
	Vulnerable women paid poverty's price.
	Ceci Thunes
7	God and Reclamation	65
	Farmers waited decades for water.
	Roy Cuellar
	Gallery: Out of the Dust	74
8	Nazis on the Homefront	84
	Boise Valley farmers enlisted prisoners of war.
	Susan Hook
9	South of the Tracks	94
	Housing segregation isolated the marginalized.
	Pam Demo
10	Hard Times at Chula Vista	107
	Braceros made community in Wilder's migrant camps.
	Anna Webb
	Hard Places Driving Tour	122
	Credits and Sources	135