

Contents

	Foreword .....	8
1	Improbable Sanctuary .....	10
	The city of Boise defies red-state stereotypes. Todd Shallat
2	Across the Pacific .....	26
	Vietnamese, displaced by war, plant roots in the City of Trees. Kathleen Rubinow Hodges
3	Chosen to Survive .....	46
	A Bosnian, cut down by shrapnel, sees his life as a miracle. Refik Sadikovic with Kathleen Rubinow Hodges
	Verse: Living Witness by Fidel Mwendambali Nshombo .....	68
4	Leave One to Remember .....	70
	A child's name bears witness to his mother's Rwandan struggle. Laura Winslow
5	Food of the Pharaohs .....	80
	Tiny teff, grown in Idaho, helps preserve Ethiopian heritage. Emily Fritchman
	Gallery: World Refugee Day .....	86
6	Nations United .....	96
	Kids from many countries build one strong team. Katherine Jones
7	Policing Softly .....	118
	Boise police nurture community. Chelsee Boehm
	Verse: Blue by Ruby McCarter and Daniah Kadhim .....	128
8	Hidden, Silent, Confused .....	130
	A survivor negotiates Boise and adolescence. Belma Sadikovic with Todd Shallat
9	A Wider Perspective .....	138
	Three lives – Eritrean, Bhutanese, and Afghan – help Boise see itself. Aileen Hale with Kathleen Rubinow Hodges
	Verse: Always Home by Zoey Hills and Paw Kee Lar .....	152
10	A Matter of Trust .....	154
	Teachers help refugees cope. Kathleen Mullen
	Epilogue .....	172
	Hysteria challenges a city's commitment to human rights. Errol D. Jones
	Credits and Sources .....	179