LES BOIS, 1950
PUBLISHED BY THE
ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF BOISE JUNIOR COLLEGE
To many students this is your last year in B.J.C. You will either go out in the world or go on to another college of higher learning, but whatever you do or wherever you go always remember the name of Boise Junior College and good luck.

In years' to come you will look back through the pages of the "Les Bois" of 1950 and see yourself in the Homecoming parade, on the football field, in a school play, or on the ski slope and you will recall many pleasant memories. It is with great pleasure that the Les Bois staff of 1950 presents this book in order to help you relive these memories as you open this book in later year.
Because of the untiring efforts of Coach Lyle Smith, the B.J.C. Broncos achieved the outstanding record of thirty-one successive undefeated games, including the victory over Taft Junior College in the Shrine Potato Bowl. To Coach Smith we sincerely dedicate the Les Bois of 1950.
ADMINISTRATION
During the years of B.J.C., the growth and development of the college has been largely due to the Board of Trustees. We wish to extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation for the work they have done in helping us maintain our high standards of education.

These outstanding citizens who have given their time and interests to the college are: J. L. Driscoll, president, who was replaced by Ed D. Baird during the year, Harry W. Morrison, Clyde F. Potter, Oscar Worthwine, Mrs. Alfred Budge Sr., and Robert Overstreet, a new member on the board.
"The direction in which education starts a man," said Plato, "will determine his future life."

Your sole purpose as a college student is to make that start. Yet, it cannot be made until a goal has been determined, else that start becomes a false start heading in a direction not in accord with your capabilities and desires.

This college has one purpose, to help the student attending determine his goals and make progress toward them. If we succeed the student has come to grips with the greatest problem of his life—a pattern for living. If we fail the student may embark upon a sea of failure—mere time marking.

The college furnishes the vehicle for success which the student must intelligently use to arrive at his goal. The school year 1949-50 offered the opportunity. May it prove a true milepost toward your ultimate destination.
We've heard much praise this year from a variety of sources for the fine spirit and ability of our students. We have done as well in several areas as in athletics, for example, but the results or the progress cannot be dramatized or pointed up with such spectacular demonstrations. The rewards for hard work or for outstanding achievement in many areas are very intangible as well as delayed sometimes for years.

I should like therefore, without minimizing the importance of our physical gains, to remind those of you students who are participating in other activities and who are simply devoting yourselves wholeheartedly to your studies that we do consider these things important and that the college, as the individual, cannot live by bread alone.

It takes all kinds of people to make a world, especially good people, and it takes all kinds of students, especially good students, to make a college. For all such students in all departments and activities of this institution we are grateful and we are sure that there will be rich, though many times unspectacular rewards for you all.
Dean of Women

The year 1949 will long be remembered for the wave of success which came to Boise Junior College as a result of the efforts of our football team. Riding the crest of this wave, the enthusiasm of our students rose to a new high—not only for athletics, but for all activities representing the college, and school spirit gained momentum. The right kind of school spirit.

The new spirit was everywhere evident this year; an increased attendance at assemblies, larger turnouts for all activities, more students than ever before volunteering to help without having to be asked. Somehow, everyone caught an "idea": that it was team-work—not each man grandstanding for his own glory, but playing as a team to win the game—that had given us the enviable athletic record we have. Our student body president voiced this idea at the first assembly after our Bowl victory. He said: "Let's continue Victory—let's keep on winning at EVERYTHING we do."

Ada Poirier Burke

Dean of Men

TO THE GRADUATES:

The best wishes of the faculty and staff go with you into your new field of endeavor. You will either go on to senior college or enter the business world. The road to success leads by way of hard work, loyalty to your task, sincerity of purpose, and efficient service. No satisfaction will be greater than the feeling of a job well done.

TO THE UNDERGRADUATES:

You have one more year at BJC. Now that you know your way around, this should be your best year in academic achievement and personality growth. You are the advanced class. It is your privilege to set the pace for the freshmen and guide them in their adjustment to college life. May this coming year be an important segment of your journey through life and may it add to your preparation for the problems and joys ahead.

ORGANIZATIONS
Duh...
Oui, monsieur.
Student Council

Under the leadership of a small group of students known as the Student Council the Boise Junior College Student Body was guided this year.

Controlling the Student Body funds, social activities, appropriating money to all school organizations, sports, and publications were but a few of the numerous duties the Student Council was confronted with throughout the year.

Our capable president this year was By Erstad. Serving as vice-president was Lee Smith, and secretary was Connie Obenchain with Virginia Dunn as treasurer. Freshman representatives were Suzanne Tate, Maurice Leiser, and Malcolm McDonald, and Barbara Thurston, Sophomore representative.
Vice-President Lee Smith welcomes the new Freshman Class officers, Maurice Leiser, Roy Fraser, Pat Trask, Jim Pulliam, Suzanne Tate, and Malcolm McDonald.

By Erstad, student body president, descends the stairs of the auditorium where school dances, plays, assemblies, and student activities are held.
The Social Committee was a group of five students, who under the direction of Mrs. Burke, were responsible for planning the all-social dances of the year, such as the Homecoming Dance, the Christmas Formal, the Spring Formal, the Commencement Dance, and two or more "fill-ins." The Social Committee's work consisted of appointing a general chairman for each dance, setting a date, and working with the committee to make each dance a success.

The Social Committee met every Tuesday in Mrs. Burke's office. The members this year included: Barbara Crowley, chairman; Bob Johnson, Frances Malstrom, Wally Robertson, and Shirley Miller.

This year the committee sponsored a mixer at the first of the year, the Homecoming Dance, the Christmas Formal, a Sport Dance, the Spring Formal, and the Commencement Dance.

The money used to sponsor these dances was taken out of the student fund and students were admitted on activity tickets.
Under the supervision of Mr. Gottenberg and editor Berta Burgess, the Les Bois for 1950 has been produced. This was not an easy task, but with a reliable staff the Les Bois was published. Material had to be gathered from every source, which was usually very hard to secure.

Marcia Eichenbreger sat at the associate editor’s desk, and Carlyle Rossow, the Association Manager’s desk, Eddie Lungren went over the mark in selling advertising, and Frances Tate and Wilma Carter were at the copy desk, while Joe Ann Salmen and Margaret Ann Wakefield supervised the Activities Division, and Larry Jackson directed the sports section. Artists were Dean Ingraham and Judd Rose.
One of the first signs of college life on the B.J.C. campus last fall was an issue of The Roundup, bi-monthly news sheet, published by the students of the college and edited through the fall semester by Dick Pitner with the assistance of his associate editor, Edith Kading; sports editor, Sidney Conner; feature editor, Beverly Keesey and hard hitting business manager, Eddie Lungren.

Spring semester brought Edith Kading to the editorship with Mac Wright as an associate and Malcolm McDonald replacing Eddie in the advertising department; feature editor was Pat Dyson with Roy Mosman and Conner splitting the sports tasks.
Intercollegiate Knights

The Golden Plume Chapter of the Intercollegiate Knights is a men's service organization. Their creed is service, sacrifice and loyalty to our school.

That service to the school began early this year when the returning knights planned and constructed an outdoor fireplace to be used for future school rallies and social gatherings. Traditional Homecoming activities included the gathering of wood for the pep rally bonfire and the burning of the 'B' on Tablerock. This year the Intercollegiate Knights' float won third prize.

The principal project of the year was the assembling and printing of the Intercollegiate Knights' Directory which was put on sale the week following Homecoming.

Several years ago an Intercollegiate Knights loan fund was established and each year the fund is increased by the organization in order to build an emergency loan fund for deserving students. This year the fund was increased by $25.00.

Included in the projects carried out by the Intercollegiate Knights were the selling of Christmas Seals, the working of a student blood donating drive for the Red Cross, and ushering and taking tickets at the football and basketball games.

The spring pledge program and the sending of a delegation to the National Intercollegiate Knights convention at Bozeman, Montana, completed the activities for the year.

Officers this year were Fred Biggs, Duke; Bob Doane, Exchequer; Chuck Griffin, Scribe; Clayton Foster, Recorder; and Glenn Compton, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Each year twenty-seven freshmen women are chosen on the basis of scholarship, dependability, initiative and participation in activities to form the Valkyries for the following year. This is a women’s service organization dedicated to fostering the spirit of cooperation and friendliness.

This year, under the able leadership of June Sawyer, the twenty-five sophomore girls participated in such activities as conducting a book store, purchasing and decorating the Christmas tree in the main hall of the Administration Building, sponsoring a Christmas luncheon for the Valkyrie Alumni, sponsoring a dinner-dance, and offering a scholarship to a deserving girl. They also assisted in the March of Dimes campaign and the Blood Bank and Cancer drives.

As did other organizations, the Valkyries entered a float in the Homecoming Parade, and proudly won first prize for the best float. They also sponsored “The Beard Cutting Contest.”

Christmas was one of the busiest times for the girls. Giving to needy people and making fudge for the faculty were two of their projects.

The members of both last year’s Valkyries and this year’s Valkyries together donated the trophy case which is located in the main hall. This year’s members dedicated the plaque in the trophy case.

Other officers assisting June, included: Vice President and Treasurer, Celeste Dahlberg; Secretary, Connie Obenchain; Bookroom Librarian, Daisy Graham; Historian, Wilma Carter; and Valkyrie of the Day Chairman, Margie Rigney. Miss Helen Moore was faculty advisor.

In closing spring semester of 1949 the nucleus of a new men's club was formed on the campus. When school opened last September, this club under the name "Pi Sigma Sigma," began functioning as one of the school's organizations.

The main purpose of the organization was to permit more men students to take an active part in organized activity of the school. With the motto of "Spirit, Pep, and Service" the club tackled the problem of making more students aware of and interested in the activities of the school.

Taking tickets at athletic events, handling concessions, and participating in assemblies started the first half-semester off with a bang. The club also did quite a bit in the promotion of inter-club competition such as hockey games with the WAA and a basketball game with the IK's. The club also presented to the school a much needed scoreboard for football games.

Officers of this club, elected this year, were: President, Jake Peterson; Vice President, Chuck Gunnerson; Secretary, Wally Robertson; Treasurer, Earl Rose; Sergeant-at-Arms, Keith Higgenson.
1. Pi Sig's were victorious over the IK's that night. 2. The scoreboard was the Pi Sig's contribution for the year. 3. What beautiful legs you boys have! 4. Prexy Jake leads a meeting. 5. Do you always have to eat? 6. The Pi Sig's clean the streets of B.J.C.
In a sense the Travelettes Club also has a limited membership. It is open only for those girls who are from out of town and attending the college. It was formed to acquaint out of town girls with the school and with each other.

As did other clubs, the Travelettes entered a Homecoming float, and proudly won second place in the parade. Throughout the year, the club had several social gatherings.

These consisted of a picnic, a covered dish dinner, and a Halloween spook party. Second term plans included putting on a show at the Veterans' Hospital and an assembly May 10.

This year’s officers included: President, Mary Grace Smith; Vice-president, Betty Judy; Secretary-Treasurer, Joan Starn; Social Chairman, Sylvia Cusick; and Red Cross Representative, Eleanor McMahon. Mrs. Stearns was the advisor.
The FTA was organized to further teaching interests. BJC’s chapter, under the advisor-ship of Mr. Acel Chatburn, has been active in educational and student affairs.

In March, the FTA gave a social for high school students interested in teaching as a profession.

One of the projects FTA plans for next year is erection of an information directory. The directory will be placed in the main hall as a guide for strangers and new students.
Activities of the International Club have been many this year. Under its advisor, Dr. Baker, many activities have been accomplished such as the World Student Service Campaign, concessions at football and basketball games, arrangement for the oratorical contest on International Affairs, a panel discussion on the Devaluation of the Currency, and an assembly called “Jim in the Beanstalk.” Also, this fast advancing club had charge of Union Night once during the year and held a roller skating party for the members.

Officers the past year were: President, Jim Duchholz; Vice-President, Ruth Lyman; Secretary-Treasurer, Rose Brunney; World Student Fund, Shirley Gilster; Program Committee Chairman, Mary Lynn Hepner; Social Committee Chairman, Gary Richardson; Concession Committee Chairman, Bernice Croft; and Publicity Committee Chairman, Joanne Cutler.

B-Cubes

Boost Boise—Boost Broncos—Boost B.J.C. is the theme this Freshmen women's pep organization carried out very successfully this year. Selling concessions, taking tickets and selling programs at the home games kept the members busy.

As did the other organizations, the B-Cubes worked hard to enter their float in the Homecoming parade. Later in the year, with the help of the Pi Sigma Sigma, the club sponsored a very entertaining assembly.

As extra projects the B-Cubes made it possible for the students to learn the college pep song by having copies printed and given to the football fans. And to make our cheering section more colorful, this peppy organization sold bright orange and blue booster hats.

Highlighting the B-Cube year was the colorful and successful “Cotton Swing,” an all school dance held on St. Patrick’s Day.

This year’s officers included President, Betsy Hall; Vice President, Pat Trask; and Secretary, Janet Langrell. Advisor of the organization was Miss Roe.
The Associated Women Students was founded for the purpose of uniting all the women students on the campus.

Last fall, the women held the Big Sister Tea with the Sophomore women acting as hostesses to the Freshmen women.

In November, the Associated Women were busy making and selling "Mums," the official corsage for the Homecoming game and dance. To bring the spirit of Christmas to the campus, the Associated Women presented an assembly including a Santa and Christmas carols. As did the other clubs, the women presented a program to compete for the prize winning assembly.

Selling concessions at games, taking tickets and sponsoring money making projects were also included in this year's schedule. A scholarship of $50 was also presented to some deserving, out-of-town girl interested in attending B.J.C.

And last, but certainly not least, February 10 found the women on the campus planning their annual "Sweetheart's Ball." This was one of the most beautiful dances of the year, and as the theme suggests, the decorations were based on Valentine's Day. Highlight of the ball was the crowning of the "King of Hearts" who was chosen by the women of the campus. This year Sam Breshares reigned as "King of Hearts" with Joe Dietrich and Ed Lungren acting as his Jacks.

Guiding the women on the campus this year was Margaret Taylor, President; Joyce Wardle, Vice President; Ramona Gabiola, Secretary; Barbara Crowley, Treasurer; Diane Larsen, Social Chairman; Carol Affleck and Carolyn Vassar, Sophomore Representatives; and Susan Hamilton and Anita Chambers, Freshmen Representatives. Mrs. Burke was the advisor.
1. The girls gather around to make MUMS for the Homecoming Dance.
2. The A.W. presented an Easter Assembly.
3. Everyone's happy at the A.W. tea.
Membership to the Spanish Club is limited to those having an equivalent of one semester of college Spanish. Meetings were held monthly at the homes of different members, or in the Student Union throughout the year. Only Spanish was spoken at the meetings. For all students who were interested in gaining efficiency in speaking Spanish the "Mesa de Espanol" was held three days a week in the Student Union. The purpose of the club is to promote a direct interest in the language, customs, and culture of the Spanish countries. One of the major projects of the club this year was the comedy "Parada y Fonda" by Vital Aza, presented by the students. Also, an annual picnic was held in the spring.

Officers of the club were Barbara Crowley, President; Dennis Morton, Vice President; and Jean Royer, Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. Camille Power was the advisor with Arantza Cazalis as her assistant.
The organization of the German Club has brought about a better understanding of the German people, their language, culture and customs. All activities of the club were aimed at providing members with an opportunity to use the language they were learning. Again this year the German Club sent food packages to needy families in Germany at the Christmas season.

Under the direction of Dr. de Neufville the club presented two 16th century German comedies by Hans Sachs, "Der Fahrende Schüler im Paradies" and "Das Kahlbebruten." Roles were played by Amy Loomis, Marvin Gardner, Duane Griffin, Larry Sandmeyer, Benny Shuey, Barbara Crowley, Byron Hunt and Richard Nourse.

Jerry Inglis, was president with Duane Griffin as vice president and Barbara Crowley served as secretary-treasurer. Dr. de Neufville acted as their advisor again this year.
Le Cercle Français is an organization of first and second year French students which meets the third Tuesday of every month under the leadership of Dr. de Neufville.

This organization offers the opportunity to become better acquainted with the cultural life of France, its geography, its social life, and above all, to converse in French.

November found le Cercle Français deep in plans for the float to be entered in the Homecoming parade. In January a production of the French play "A Louer Meuble" written by Gabriel d'Hervilliez was presented. As did all other clubs, le Cercle Français participated in an assembly sponsored by the language department of the college.

This year's officers included: President, Robert Greenlee; Vice President, Carolyn Gruger; and Secretary-Treasurer, Betty Judy.
The Newman Club is an organization made up of the Catholic students of the college and the members of the St. Alphonsus School of Nursing, who were welcomed this year.

The main purpose of the club is to foster the intellectual and social life of its members. The organization consisted of approximately fifty active members. Its meetings, which were held every first and third Monday of each month, were devoted to discussions of religious and social topics. Activities the past year included guest speakers, dances, picnics, and socials at various times throughout the year.

Sponsor and chaplain for the club was Father Peplinski and faculty advisor was Doctor Spulnik, who also acted as official caller of the square dances which followed the meetings. Other officers were: President, Louie Barinaga; Vice President, Margaret Ann Wakefield; Corresponding Secretary, Ramona Gabiola; Recording Secretary, Cecilia Simmons; and Marshal, Bob Shaw.
The Bronco Ski Club is composed of students on the campus who are interested in skiing. There were about thirty-five members in the club this year.

In October the club handled the concessions booth for one of the football games. Shortly following this, they built a float and presented it in the Homecoming parade. In February the club sponsored a Union Night, which was to promote interest in the club. Later in the month a team was sent to McCall for the Pacific Northwest Ski Association meet. The members of this team were Clayton Foster, Glenn Compton, Mike Tometz, Bob Doane, Walt Eaton, and Coach Dr. Obee.

This year’s officers were President, Clayton Foster; Vice-President, Lyle Cunningham; Donna Arnold, Secretary-Treasurer. Dr. Obee was the club advisor.

Although the snow didn’t fall until late this year, this season was successful. So here’s to “good skiing” to the “50 - 51” members from the “49-50” members of the Bronco Ski Club.
The Women’s Athletic Association is composed of all women students interested in extra-curricular sports.

The Field Hockey trip was the largest event of the year. Traveling to the Oregon State campus at Corvalis, the girls participated in the Pacific Northwestern Field Hockey Conference.

Other sports sponsored by the W.A.A. included volleyball, basketball, softball, tennis, golf, and archery.

In early April the annual W.A.A. banquet was held with the election of new officers.

This year’s officers included: President, Carol Affleck; Vice President and Treasurer, Barbara Thurston; and Secretary and Publicity, Christine Paulson.
"Right and left grand—Promenade the little girl you left behind." It may be Greek to some students, but to the Stampedeers, it's intelligible, and fun, too. The Stampedeers were the square dance fans who met twice monthly, to learn new dances and to swing the old favorites, with Doctor Obee and members doing the calling.

Most of the year before members graduated, so the club was re-organized. Officers elected were: Phil McQueen, President; Joe Cordell, Vice President; and Delbert Hearn, Secretary-Treasurer. The only requirements for membership were an interest in square dancing and the time to attend the dances.
During the past year Buryl Carringer and Walter Azcuenaga felt the need of a dance band on the campus, and, as a result, the Campus Dance Band was formed.

Through the year this band has played at Union Nites, for club dances and other engagements.

These students play because they enjoy playing and like to make music. They aren't paid much, but it is hoped that this can be increased as the band's popularity grows.
Everyone interested in drama has the ambition to become a member of Delta-Psi. Membership in Delta Psi is based on a point system. New members are admitted into the club after they have earned sufficient points. By working on play production a student may earn sufficient points to become eligible for membership in the club.

Each Delta Psi member was at one time a member of Alpha Mu Amega, a junior organization open to any student interested in drama.

One formal initiation was held this year with fifteen new members initiated.

Officers of the organization were: Ted Coltrin, president; Ruth Lyman, vice-president; Shirley Miller, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Harold Wennstrom, B.J.C. dramatics director, served as faculty advisor to the group.
Phi Theta Kappa

Zeta Mu Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, a national honorary scholastic society, is a comparatively new organization on the B.J.C. campus having been active only three years. Under the direction of Mrs. Strawn, this was a successful year with increased membership and social activities. It is an honor to be a member, for only those students with a grade point average of a B or better are eligible.

The officers of 1950 are: Ben Shuey, President; Christine Paulson, Vice President; Suzanne Craven, Secretary; LeRoy Bates, Treasurer; and Delbert Hearn, Council member.
Many organizations and functions have had the pleasure of being entertained by the girl’s ensemble. This year they have had a very successful season under the direction of Mrs. Forter. Not only have they sung for the B.J.C. student body but they have presented programs in Boise as well.

This year their calendar consisted of singing for the Baptist Church, the Boise Business Women, music assemblies and over the radio. They also presented selections at a tea given for the students from outlying districts. The tea was sponsored by the Home Economics Department.

Much of the success and fine school spirit of Boise Junior College this year may be credited to a few hard working students, known as the Pep Band.

Throughout the year, this peppy organization practiced and worked hard to improve the school spirit of the college.

Playing at football and basketball games at home kept the members busy. They also traveled to an out-of-town game at La Grande, and had the honor of playing in the Potato Bowl at Bakersfield. Though small in number, their pep and spirit was enviable.

Another accomplishment of the pep band this year, was the addition of new uniforms. With the grey trousers, blue sweaters, and bright orange ties, the uniforms added a great deal to the spirit of the student body.

Appreciation should also be extended to the Pep Band for playing at assemblies and pep rallies.

This year’s president was Bob Baker and the student director was Burly Carringer. Faculty director was Mr. John Best.
The Boise Junior College Community Symphony Orchestra assemble for one of their many Sunday Concerts.

Orchestra

The Boise Junior College Community Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. John H. Best, is composed of both students and townspeople.

Two Sunday Concerts were presented during the year besides playing for graduation and baccalaureate.

This forty-three piece industrious musical group meets every Wednesday evening for practice sessions.
Choir students form their lines on the B.J.C. stage. This group is under the direction of Mr. C. Griffith Bratt.

Choir

Under the direction of C. Griffith Bratt, the beautiful blending of approximately fifty voices known as the A Cappella Choir has completed another very successful year.

Aside from many hours spent in practicing, the choir sang at assemblies, Vesper Services, and at the Veterans' Hospital. The largest project was the production of Bach to Boogie.

Completing the year, forty-four members toured from April 24-28 through Idaho, Oregon, and Washington. They presented eleven concerts on four other college campuses, including Northern Idaho College of Education, the University of Idaho, The College of Idaho, and Whitman College.
Virginia Oliason, Jerry Hill, Joan Edwards, and Don Urry formed the front for the cheering section this year.

Cheer Leaders

Virginia Oliason, Joan Edwards, Jerry Hill, and Don Urry lead the cheering section during the past year. These "pep boosters" were present at all of the home games, and led the B.J.C. cheering section at La Grande and Nampa. Also, they were seen cheering the Broncos on to victory in the Shrine Potato Bowl at Bakersfield. These industrious cheerleaders also took part in the awards assembly for the football and basketball players.

The entire student body regretted the departure of Jerry Hill at the end of the first semester. New skirts were acquired by the girls who added color to their uniform by inserting orange pleats in blue skirts.

Jerry Hill was honored by an invitation November 4 to a cheer leading convention in Twin Falls. He attended this meet and brought back several new cheers for the "pepsters" of B.J.C.
Lovely Donna Arnold was crowned Duchess with her attendants Virginia Dunn and Pat Dyson at the IK's annual Golden Plume Ball.

IK Golden Plume Ball

Highlighting the annual Golden Plume Ball, sponsored by the Intercollegiate Knights, was the crowning of I.K. Duchess Donna Arnold and her attendants, Pat Dyson and Virginia Dunn.

Other intermission entertainment was furnished by Bob Donahue and Suzanne Craven who sang "Dreamer’s Holiday." Refreshments were then served in the Student Union.

Before the ball all IK's and their dates were honored at a dinner at the Hillcrest Country Club.

The general chairman for the affair was Fred Biggs. Chuck Griffin, Chad White, and Lyle Cunningham were in charge of decorations. Other committee chairmen were Lee Smith, affairs at the Union; Ted Coltrin, ticket and program; Dewayne Bills, advertisement.
Chairman DeWayne Bills planned a very successful Christmas Dance on December 27 in the auditorium. "Mistletoe Kiss" was the theme of this dance and the alumni were guests of honor.

Intermission was turned over to Gibb Hochstrasser, former student of the college and well-known for his band arrangements.

Dick Metcalf played for the affair.
One of the outstanding dances of the year was the Sweetheart’s Ball. Intermission was set aside for the crowning of the King of Hearts and the two Jacks.

Traditional of the Valentine Season was the annual Sweetheart’s Ball, which was sponsored by the Associated Women Students and presented in the auditorium where the decorations of cupids and hearts were eye-catching to the dancers. Dick Metcalf’s orchestra played and guests of honor were the past presidents of the AWS.

The outstanding event of the evening was the presentation of Sam Breshears as King of Hearts. The King and two Jacks of Hearts, Eddie Lungren and Joe Dietrich, were crowned by Margaret Taylor, A.W.S. president. Then Connie Obenchain sang “A Valentine” to Sam.

Committee chairmen for the dances were: Margaret Taylor, general chairman; Carol Affleck, decorations; Diane Larsen, programs; Joyce Wardle, bids and invitations; Anita Chambers, social arrangements; Ramona Gabiola, refreshments; Susan Hamilton, orchestra; Cay Vassar, crowning; and Frances Tate, floor and door.
The biggest dance of the year was the Spring Formal with Candyland as its theme. Decorations were eye catching with a false ceiling and candy stick decorations.

Highlighting the plans of the Social Committee for the spring season was the Spring Formal. The theme, "Candy Land," was followed through in the decorations and other plans of the occasion.

Hugh Joslyn's orchestra played. Added entertainment was furnished by the program presented during the intermission. Refreshments were served in the Union through the evening.

Barbara Crowley, general chairman for the dance, was supported by committee chairmen: Francis Malmstrom, programs; Bob Johnson, decorations; Shirley Miller, floor and door; Ruth Lyman, invitations; Mickey Ogan, intermission; and Wally Robertson, refreshments.
First dance of the year was the All School Mixer, at which Betty Wade and DeWayne Bills won the jitterbug contest.

The opening social affair of the year was the annual School Mixer for all BJC students. This dance was designed to give students a chance to get acquainted, and as the name implies, the evening was filled with organized "mixer dances" to get everyone acquainted and to keep them dancing.

During the intermission a dancing contest was held. The two chosen as the best blindfolded dancers were DeWayne Bills and Betty Wade. A record albumn was given each winner.
The cast assembles for a picture from "Taming of the Shrew," a Shakespearean play, presented by the drama department under the direction of Mr. Wennstrom.

Taming of the Shrew

William Shakespeare's celebrated comedy, "The Taming of the Shrew" was the first dramatic production of the school year. Under the direction of Harold Wennstrom, the play was termed successful with Anthony Contino as Petruchio and Pat King as Kate. This was the first Shakespeare play to be presented at B.J.C.

Special emphasis was given to the costumes in the play. Much research and work was done by Susan Hamilton and Bernice Croft.

Outstanding in supporting roles were Marvin Gardner as Lucentio, William Moulton as Tramio, Budge Porritt as Baptista, Gremio was played by Maurice Stork, Hortenio by Warren Pepperdine, Bianca by Rosa Lou Pulliam and Mary Lynn Hepner, and the widow by Joanne Cutler. Each year it has been traditional for each foreign language club to present a play in its respective language. The past year the Spanish Club produced a play called " Parscada y Fonda," by Vital Aza, under the direction of Mrs. Power. The French students, with Dr. de Neufville as director, presented a play called "A Louer Meuble," by Gabriel d’ Hervilliez. The German Club, also directed by Dr. de Neufville, staged two plays "Der Fahrende Schuber in Paradies" and "Das Kahlbebrirten" by Hans Sachs.

Gabriel De Hervilliez’ "A Louer Meuble" which was presented January 15.

Bakersfield, Calif.

Football

For the third consecutive year, the Broncos went through a tough schedule without a defeat, jumping the undefeated string to 29 successive victories. At the end of the season they found themselves rated as the third best junior college football squad in the nation.

The Broncos were smothered with “bids” and “feelers” to junior college bowl games from all over the country. An offer from the Spindle Bowl committee, Beumont, Texas, was refused in favor of a “bid” to the Potato Bowl at Bakersfield, California.

Head Coach, Lyle Smith, was no better a coach than he was a man and won the respect and admiration of a great group of fellows.

Assistant Coach, George Blankley, developed a line that few teams could penetrate.

SHRINE POTATO BOWL

Joe Dietrich and Jim Duncan were chosen for all-tournament team positions on the Region 4 National Junior College Athletic Association.
The Boise Junior College basketball team had a successful season—winning 16 out of 26 games.

Head Coach George Blankley, skippered a group of boys that were either up or down. The team played great basketball when they were up for a game, but just couldn't see the surface when they were down. For example: The Broncs battled Tyler Jr. College, last year's National Junior College Champions, to a standstill until the last few minutes when All-American Jerry Champion iced the ball game with two field goals. The game was lost by three points.

The Broncs went to the Intermountain Conference Regional Tournament at Ogden, Utah. They won their first two starts against Mesa Junior College to gain a berth in the finals against the Weber Wildcats. The Broncs lost a heartbreaker to Weber 69-55 to take second place in the tournament.

Little Joe Dietrich and Jim Duncan made the all-tournament squad.

The tennis team Bill Hatabaugh, Marilyn York, Bob Hall, and George Betebenner played many matches the past year.

The tennis team for the past year had a very successful year. Names were needed for a ladder tournament, which was played April 15. The top four, George Betebenner, Marilyn York, Bob Hall and Bill Hatabaugh constituted the team with the next two as alternates.

The tennis team Bill Hatabaugh, Marilyn York, Bob Hall, and George Betebenner played many matches the past year. The tennis team for the past year had a very successful year. Names were needed for a ladder tournament, which was played April 15. The top four, George Betebenner, Marilyn York, Bob Hall and Bill Hatabaugh constituted the team with the next two as alternates.

Some of the teams played this year were: the College of Idaho and Northwest Nazarene College. In addition to these the team competed in the conference meet held in Salt Lake City.
Under the direction of Coach George Blankley, the Bronco thinclads of 1950 breezed through the heaviest schedule in B.J.C. track history.

The Broncs opened the season by gaining fourth place in the college division of the Annual Pocatello Relay Carnival. The 880 relay team of Jay Smith, H. A. Carpes, Carlyle Rossow and Bob Wilder took second place laurels as they trailed the U. of Utah team, which was defending champ in the Big Seven.

In the first Annual Nampa Nazarene Invitational Meet, which was held in the Bulldog Bowl at Nampa, the B. J. C. squad could do no better than fifth place in competition with the larger schools.

Coach Blankley's crew closed out the season by participating in the Intermountain Conference Meet at Rupert, a night meet at the College of Idaho, and the annual Juco Meet which was held in Salt Lake City on May 12.

The college baseball squad, at this writing, has been suffering through a slump. The Broncs have dropped six games while winning three; however, the team has fifteen games left and their performance in the last two games against Nampa Nazarene College and the professional Boise Pilots leads us to believe they are coming out of it.

The team is loaded with potentially good ball players but as yet, they can’t get rolling. Catchers Harry Howerton and Don Campbell are both smart, capable catchers while their battery mates Dick Patterson, Bill Mays, Bill Howard and Larry Jackson compose a strong pitching staff.

The infield is sparked by the fielding of third baseman Joe Dietrich and the hitting of first baseman Walter Gearhauser. Earl Williams, Jerry McCubbin, and Bob Jozwiak play an equally good second base while George Donaldson and Larry Jackson alternate at short stop.

Outfielders Dave Paulson and Malcolm McDonald are consistently getting hits and playing their positions flawlessly.

Coach Lyle Smith knows he has a good ball club and is doing his best to bring them out of their losing streak. He sums it up by saying, “We are a good ball club, all we need is a win or two to get rolling.”
1. Gerhauser makes a nice catch.
2. Pepper game.
3. George picks up a grounder.
4. Was that a curve, Pat?
5. Wha’ happened, Larry?
Proposed Dormitory

On April 11, 1950 the voters in the Boise Junior College District voted seven to one in favor of constructing two new dormitories on the campus at a cost of $500,000.

The dorms, one for men and one for women, will cost $250,000 each. They will be of brick and white stone trim and will harmonize with the present B.J.C. buildings.

E. D. Baird, chairman of the Board of Trustees, said he regarded the election as an “expression of confidence by taxpayers of the district.”

Dr. Eugene B. Chaffee, president of the college, said the election was an “inspiration to the students and the faculty.”
The Youth of Idaho Has Room to Grow

It is very unlikely that any place in the world offers its youth greater opportunity for a fine future than does Idaho. The pioneering is mostly done but the growth has only begun. Past and present generations have built the trails to natural resources of timber and minerals. Man-made dams and great irrigation and power projects have created agricultural and industrial opportunities which beckon to the hands and minds of the generations that will develop them, profit by them and expand them. Yes, there's room for youth to grow in Idaho and the tools to cultivate that growth are already at hand.

Power for Every Need

Idaho Power’s $78,000,000 expansion program is an example of private enterprise planning and working for growth of the Snake River Valley.

Since the war, Idaho Power has nearly tripled its capacity to serve. Thus, the new industries and developments that have come and are coming to Idaho—phosphorus, fertilizer, cobalt, antimony, smelting, to name a few—bringing with them employment and payrolls for Idaho people, have, in every case, found dependable low-cost electric service ready and waiting.
