President's Message

Marian K. Graham

"I can't believe it's the end of November already! I feel as though I have been lost in a vacuum for a couple of months. It seems like only yesterday that I was in Tucson, watching Jackie Fuller being installed as President of NAEOP. What a wonderful experience! Not only because Jackie is my friend and co-worker, or even because it's great to have someone from Idaho serve as President, or even because I received my PSP, but just to attend the 59th National Association of Office Professionals Annual Conference was a great honor. I met people from nearly every state and had the opportunity to talk with them about a variety of subjects."

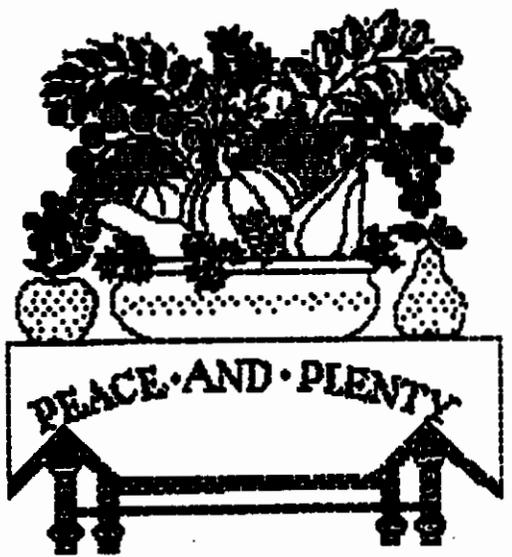

"Attending this conference really helped me to see how an organization can work to encourage and support its members. This is a goal I have for BSUAOP this year--as we "Look Toward the Future," I would like each of you to work to encourage and support others in our profession. Sharing your talents and supporting others in our profession is very rewarding. This can be as little as helping a co-worker learn more about WordPerfect or teaching a new secretary the "ropes." Remember, we all need someone to help us at some time."

"Remember the Holiday Auction and Decoration Contest--get involved! It's a wonderful way of sharing yourself with others."

ANNUAL HOLIDAY AUCTION
& LUNCHEON

Boise State University Association of Office Personnel is having their annual Holiday Luncheon and Auction on Tuesday, December 14, 1993, in the Student Union Building, Lookout Room, from 11:30 AM to 1:30 PM. All reservations should be in Friday, December 10, 1993.

We are planning a roast beef dinner with all the trimmings and we have acquired some wonderful, fun, and interesting items for our auction. These donations have come from many businesses in Boise, BSU Departments, and several private individuals. This is our big scholarship fund-raiser of the year and we anticipate campus wide participation.

Again this year, we are having our own entertaining auctioneer, Dick Rapp from Career Planning & Placement, and his fantastic helpers, Steve Spafford, Dean of Admissions and BSU Emeriti Faculty and Staff, Dr. Richard Hart.

I, as the committee chair, hope you will take advantage of the festivities for your own holiday gift giving.

When I started to gather the information I needed to get my PSP, I felt overwhelmed by the amount of paperwork. During the time I was working on the forms, I never imagined how exciting, wonderful and fulfilling it would be to receive my certificate. I was lucky enough to be able to receive that certificate in Tucson at NAEOP's 59th Annual Conference, but it wasn't just because I was there to be honored for achieving my PSP that made me feel the way I did. I felt a great deal of pride and accomplishment for having completed the requirements. I felt I finally had some tangible evidence of my professional development and growth over the past seven years. I never thought, as I grumbled my way through the forms, that it would mean so much to me.

I wanted to share this with all of you to encourage you to "Look Toward the Future," start putting together the information, it's really worth the time and effort. Call me at x3789 if you would like more information about PSP.

BSUAOP NEEDS YOU!

Marian K. Graham
BSUAOP President

With the semester nearing an end, BSUAOP Committee Chairs are still looking for members. We desperately need to get the Bosses' Breakfast Committee chaired and working. I know that everyone is extremely busy at this time of year, but work on this project would not have to start until after the Christmas break. So, if you've ever wanted to help out, this is the time!

Always Try to do What You Can

It was a chilly, overcast day when the horseman spied the little sparrow lying on its back in the middle of the road. Reining in his mount, he looked down and inquired of the little creature, "Why are you lying upside down like that?"

"I heard the sky is going to fall today," replied the bird.

The horseman laughed. "And I suppose your spindly little legs can hold up the sky?"

"One does what one can," said the little sparrow.
