PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Welcome to Boise State University's 2014 Spring Commencement. This ceremony, in your honor, is our University’s finest hour. Your years of hard work and dedication have paid off. The challenges set before you have been met after enduring countless late nights, lectures and exams. Another impressive class of Broncos is ready to make its mark on the world.

To the graduates, we are very proud of you and your accomplishments, and we are committed to continually improving the academic profile of Boise State to ensure that you take pride in your alma mater. Boise State University is on the map and on the move. The value of the degree you will receive today will grow along with our reputation as a metropolitan research university of distinction.

To the loved ones of the graduates, take pride in the accomplishments being recognized today given the supporting role you have played in the lives of our graduates. Without your love and support, this celebration may not have been possible at all.

Finally, let us all remember that learning does not stop with graduation. The noble, lifelong pursuit of knowledge, enrichment and enlightenment is critical to a full and meaningful life.

Thank you for placing your trust in Boise State University for your higher education aspirations. On behalf of the faculty, alumni, staff and students, let me be the first to offer a heartfelt congratulations and best wishes for a bright future.

Go Broncos!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Bob Kustra
President
Boise State University
Boise State University is a public, metropolitan research university offering an array of undergraduate and graduate degrees and experiences that foster student success, lifelong learning, community engagement, innovation and creativity. Research and creative activity advance new knowledge and benefit students, the community, the state and the nation. As an integral part of its metropolitan environment, the university is engaged in professional and continuing education programming, policy issues, and promoting the region's economic vitality and cultural enrichment.

Boise State University aspires to be a research university known for the finest undergraduate education in the region and for outstanding research and graduate programs. With its exceptional faculty, staff and student body, and its location in the heart of a thriving metropolitan area, the university will be viewed as an engine that drives the Idaho economy, providing significant return on public investment.

Four core themes have been established to achieve the goals and mission of the university. These are:

- Undergraduate Education. Our university provides access to high quality undergraduate education that cultivates the personal and professional growth of our students and meets the educational needs of our community, state and nation. We engage our students and focus on their success.

- Graduate Education. Our university provides access to graduate education that addresses the needs of our region, is meaningful in a global context, is respected for its high quality, and is delivered within a supportive graduate culture.

- Research and Creative Activity. Through our endeavors in basic and applied research and in creative activity, our researchers, artists, and students create knowledge and understanding of our world and of ourselves, and transfer that knowledge to provide societal, economic, and cultural benefits. Students are integral to our faculty research and creative activity.

- Community Commitment. The university is a vital part of the community. Our commitment to the community extends beyond our educational programs, research and creative activity. We collaborate in the development of partnerships that address community and university issues. The community and university share knowledge and expertise with each other. We look to the community to inform our goals, actions and measures of success. We work with the community to create a rich mix of culture, learning experiences and entertainment that educates and enriches the lives of our citizens. Our campus culture and climate promote civility, inclusivity and collegiality.

With an enrollment of 22,000 students, Boise State is a progressive learning-oriented, student focused university dedicated to excellence in teaching, innovative research, leadership development and community service. These students are benefiting from a renewed emphasis on the undergraduate experience and reaching graduation day better prepared for the challenges of the 21st century.

HONORARY DOCTORATE

Marilyn Shuler, former director of the Idaho Human Rights Commission, earned her master of public administration degree at Boise State in 1978 and is known for her untiring efforts on behalf of human rights. She co-founded, built and promoted the Idaho Anne Frank Human Rights Memorial, is a founding member of the Northwest Coalition Against Malicious Harassment, supported the development of the Idaho Black History Museum, founded the Peaceful Settlements Foundation and established the John Shuler Fund at the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare in support of foster care.

"For many years, Marilyn Shuler has been an incredible advocate for human rights and has given voice to countless people of all ages and at all levels of society," said President Bob Kustra. "Her indefatigable spirit and selfless service to the community in areas as diverse as public education and civic affairs are an inspiration to all of us here at the university and beyond. She truly exemplifies the very best of our Boise State alumni."

"Through periods of great controversy, Marilyn Shuler has been the steady, reasonable influence at the moral center of Idaho," said former Idaho Gov. Cecil Andrus. "She has done more with the resources of a tiny agency and a tiny budget to advance the cause of human rights and individual dignity than anyone ever has in Idaho. She has been a persistent guardian of the rights of all members of society."

In addition to her work as a guardian ad litem for foster children and as a Boise River Greenbelt patrol volunteer, she is a program chair for the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Boise State, a board member for the Boise Commission on Foreign Relations, the Casey Family Program Community Advisory Board and other organizations, and a volunteer lead teacher for the YMCA Kindergarten Project, among other activities.

She helped establish public kindergartens in Idaho, encouraged the state to implement some of the strongest laws banning malicious harassment and paramilitary training, helped create the Martin Luther King Jr./Idaho Human Rights Day, helped organize the Ada County Human Rights Task Force and more.

"Marilyn Shuler is a saint and, I would add, a very busy saint," noted YMCA Director Jim Everett.

Boise State previously recognized Shuler with an Alumni Honored Scholar Award, as a Top Twenty Alumni from the College of Social Sciences and Public Affairs and as a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.
JAMIE LUNDERGREEN, from Gardnerville, Nevada, is graduating with honors, earning a bachelor of arts in both psychology and Spanish. A member of the Honor's College since beginning at Boise State, Lundergreen is a Brown Honors Scholarship recipient, has been on the Dean's list six semesters and has maintained a 3.95 GPA.

In addition to excelling in both the classroom and community, Lundergreen is recognized as an effective and inspiring speaker. She has demonstrated speaking experience in front of a variety of audiences, including at the Honors College Banquet every semester since Fall 2012, as an Ambassador at the annual USAC Board of Directors meeting in March 2013, and most recently as emcee for the Boise State Scholarship dinner in February 2014, with an audience of more than 350 donors, students, university officials and community members.

“Jamie's comments were well written, well-delivered and her professionalism shone through the entire evening,” said Dr. Laura Simic, vice president for university advancement. “Her personality and story were a delight for the audience.”

Lundergreen has demonstrated great leadership outside of the classroom by holding positions in a variety of organizations. She served as president and social representative for the Honor Student Association and actively volunteers at many events. She was selected to serve as a peer mentor in the Honors College Peer Mentor Program, where she acted as a resource for incoming honors students, and assisted with facilitating classroom discussion and advising.

“Jamie has done so much to serve her campus and community by being such a positive role model for a variety of people,” said Kimberly McAdams, a professor of psychology who nominated Lundergreen as the student speaker for commencement.

Her honors thesis is an innovative study examining Facebook behaviors in her fellow students, which includes multiple assessments and reviews of analytical data.

“Although it is a daunting task to be analyzing three waves of data in addition to managing participant recruitment and stage of participation, Jamie has done a fantastic job handling this impressive task,” said McAdams.

Lundergreen has served as both a student ambassador, interacting with Idaho legislators to convey community interest on behalf of Boise State students, and as a global ambassador, where she helped ease the transition to Boise State for international students. Her international experience studying abroad in England and Spain allowed her to bring a broad global perspective back to campus.

“This international experience also helped her relate to the refugees she was assisting at the English Language Center,” said McAdams.

Off campus Lundergreen volunteers with the Foothills School of Arts and Science, helping elementary students improve reading skills, and with North Junior High School in the classroom.

Following graduation, Lundergreen plans to pursue job opportunities related to the Spanish language, community outreach and international education in the San Francisco Bay Area. She also hopes to continue in a graduate program and travel and work abroad, especially in Spanish-speaking countries.

“Boise State truly has a community spirit,” said Lundergreen. “From the classrooms to the Quad, I've encountered so many caring faculty and peers who have helped me to grow as a learner and to delve deeper into my interests. I feel that Boise State gives students both the flexibility and support to really make the most of their education.”

HONORS COLLEGE

The Honors College offers exceptional undergraduate students a challenging interdisciplinary curriculum and a rich array of co-curricular activities. Those who have completed the prescribed course of study and have at least a 3.5 GPA graduate with honors. Distinguished Honors may be granted to a student whose record of Honors College activities and community service indicates outstanding performance.

ABRAHAM CALDERON, of Meridian, Idaho, will graduate with a bachelor's degree in sociology. A first generation college student with aspirations to earn a Ph.D., Abraham was just four years old when he emigrated to Idaho from rural Mexico with his parents and four siblings. A member of the Honors College and a McNair Scholar, Abraham’s background and personal education experiences drive him to understand the obstacles facing “thousands of young immigrants and children of immigrants who have similar and even more difficult challenges.” As an undergraduate student he designed and executed his own original research project exploring how working-class immigrants from Mexico are able to overcome obstacles to becoming politicized. His work was funded through a McNair Research Fellowship and the Boise State University Student Research Initiative. His findings were accepted for presentation at national McNair conferences for an undergraduate presentation at the 2014 Pacific Sociological Association Conference. In addition to his research, he has been active with the Idaho Community Action Network, a grassroots community organization committed to racial, economic and social justice.

_Honored faculty: Arthur Scarritt, Department of Sociology_

COURTNEY HOLLAR, of Boise, will graduate with a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering and a minor in biomedical engineering. She plans to attend graduate school this fall to pursue a Ph.D. in mechanical engineering. During her junior year, the Idaho Society of Professional Engineers recognized Courtney as the outstanding junior in mechanical engineering. For two-and-a-half years, Courtney worked as a research assistant with the nanoscale materials and device group and Dr. Peter Müllner's research group. Her research focused on using nanomechanics to manipulate the magnetic response of a ferromagnetic shape memory alloy. Courtney had an opportunity to present her research at the 4th International Conference on Ferromagnetic Shape Memory Alloys and she is the co-author of a recently published paper in Advanced Functional Materials. Courtney served as secretary for the Society of Women Engineers Club for the past three years and has also been involved in educating young girls about math and science related careers. She is also the recipient of several scholarships and awards, including the American Council of Engineering Companies Scholarship, Society of Women Engineers Scholarship, Boise State University Foundation Engineering Scholarship, Women of Today and Tomorrow Award, and Governor's Brightest Star Award.

_Honored faculty: Chad Watson, Department of Materials Science and Engineering_
LAUREN LUCAS, of Las Vegas, Nevada, will graduate with a degree in elementary education with an emphasis in mathematics. She plans on teaching next year and is passionate about continuing her professional development through a master’s degree in education in curriculum and instruction. She is completing her student teaching at the Boise Independent School District where she has conducted extensive research on the integration of language arts and social studies content within the state’s common core curriculum. She presented her research at the Undergraduate Research and Scholarship Conference in spring 2014. Before student teaching, Lauren spent the year as tutor at local middle and high schools and provided supplemental tutoring for individual students in her free time. She is the recipient of the Gerald and Eunice Wallace Scholarship, is a four-year student-athlete, and has been on the College of Education Dean’s List for the past four years as well as being a member of Phi Eta Sigma. In addition to her dedication to academic success, she has been a competitive member of the cross country, indoor and outdoor track teams.

Honored faculty: Annal Frenz, Honors College

JAMIE LUNDEGREEN, from Gardnerville, Nevada, will graduate with a dual bachelor’s degree in Spanish and psychology. She is a recipient of the Thelma Brown Honors Scholarship and has been an active member of the Honors College, including president of the Honors Student Association for the past two years. She has been involved on-campus by facilitating a discussion group called Friday Forum and by assisting international students through the Global Ambassadors Program. She has also been active in the Boise community with volunteer projects like cleaning-up Table Rock and reading with students at Foothills Elementary School. During her sophomore year, she spent a semester in Alicante, Spain, and this past summer, she completed a program at Oxford University. Both of these experiences inspired her passion for international education. Most recently, she completed a summer internship at the University Studies Abroad Consortium Central Office. Following graduation, Jamie plans to pursue job opportunities related to the Spanish language, community outreach and international education in the San Francisco Bay area.

Honored faculty: Andrew Finstuen, Honors College

LILLIAN MCKINLEY, of Middleton, Idaho, is graduating with a bachelor’s degree in biology with minors in chemistry and music. During her time at Boise State she has been involved with many organizations, including serving as president of the biology club, the club softball team, and club sports council. She also participated in many music ensembles at Boise State including Symphonic Winds, Tuba Euphonium Ensemble, All-Campus Band, Vocal Jazz Ensemble and the Blue Thunder Marching and Pep Bands, where she served as section leader for two years. She received multiple awards for her involvement and leadership, including the 2012 Female Club Sports Athlete of the Year, the Blue Thunder Marching Band’s outstanding senior member award and the Living Legacy award (in honor of Dr. David A. Wells).

Honored faculty: Marc Bechard, Department of Biological Science
DISTINGUISHED PROFESSORS

This title constitutes the highest honor Boise State University can bestow on its faculty members. The honor is reserved for a very small number of faculty who were selected for their major contributions to their academic disciplines and for their promise of future achievement.

Nancy Napier
Centre for Creativity and Innovation

During her 27 year career at Boise State University Dr. Napier has brought national and international recognition to her department, our university, community, and state. As an author, she has produced literature that has impacted scholars and practitioners alike. Her recent work in the field of creativity and business practices has been called “groundbreaking” in nature, changing the way managers approach their fields of study and their practical application of management principles. Dr. Napier’s entrepreneurial spirit is a testament to dedication far beyond Boise State, and her work in Vietnam was recognized with her receiving the Medal of Honor by the Vietnam Ministry of Education and Training in 2011, the highest civilian honor Vietnam issues. Simply put, Dr. Napier represents the best at Boise State University and she continues to bring honor to herself and her university.

Jeff Wilhelm,
English

Dr. Wilhelm’s contribution to the field of education has been called “brilliant” and a “force of nature.” Those words describe a scholar who has had a substantial impact on the way teachers teach in a caring, responsible, and effective manner. His books have not only been widely dispersed across the nation, they have received recognition for improving how teachers teach and how students learn. In today’s world, the practical effect of such innovative work has resulted in a better world for students, teachers, parents, and citizens. Furthermore, the leadership Dr. Wilhelm has provided in establishing and maintaining the Boise State Writing Project is beyond description. His contribution to Boise State students and faculty in this regard is nothing short of phenomenal. Dr. Wilhelm is deserving of special recognition highlighting the honor and distinction he has brought to his profession and school.

CEREMONIAL TRADITIONS

The Commencement exercise is a fitting conclusion to a successful academic career and earning of a university degree. The ceremony is based on 800 years of academic tradition handed down from European universities of the Middle Ages. Commencement ceremonies, with their academic gowns, mortarboards, tassels, hoods and maces, are colorful, festive and dignified. It is a ceremony to recognize the successes of the University and the students who merit degrees.

ACADEMIC PROCESSSION

The academic procession is a featured part of the commencement program – a symbolic declaration that all members of the academic community are bound by a common purpose and shared commitment to the ideals of higher education, including the search for meaning, truth and understanding.

The presidential party – the president, the provost, the vice presidents, and deans – is led by a mace bearer, who is a faculty member and the president of the faculty senate.

THE MACE

The mace, generally made of wood and clad in metal, was used as a weapon during the Middle Ages. The mace has evolved into a symbol of authority and is carried at commencement and at ceremonies where honors or degrees are to be awarded.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

The caps, gowns, and hoods in the processional are symbolic of the Middle Ages. Because universities developed from church schools, both faculty and students were regarded as part of the clergy and wore clerical clothing based on monastic dress.

The traditional hat developed from the skull cap worn in cold weather. In Europe, a bonnet with tassel is still worn, but in America it has been replaced by the mortarboard cap or tam with tassel. The bachelor’s gown, with its long, pointed sleeves, is worn closed. The master’s gown has an oblong sleeve open at the wrist; the rear section is square cut. The doctor’s gown often was furred, a decoration that survives today as the velvet on the front and sleeves.

The tassel colors seen in the processional correspond to the field of study.

THE ACADEMIC HOOD

The academic hood was originally worn over the head in bad weather. Now, it is added to the apparel of those who earn master’s and doctoral degrees.

The colors on the hoods represent two things: the wearer’s Alma Mater and the department of learning. The silk lining is in the colors of the college or university granting the degree. The velvet trim is the color that represents the departments of learning in which the degree was obtained.

The academic hood, presented by Boise State University’s Graduate College, displays a blue and orange chevron, denoting the University’s colors. The color of the velvet border represents the field of study in which the degree is awarded.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Guests and family members must remain in the seating areas during the entire ceremony, including the processional and recessional, and will not be allowed on the arena floor.

Elevators are available at Entrances 1 and 2.

For medical emergencies or care, please check with ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony, faculty and graduates will proceed in the recessional through the Honor March to the reception on the Intramural Field adjacent to the Appleton Tennis Center. Each college will have a specially designated area where family and guests can meet graduates.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Frank Church High School is an alternative public secondary school in Boise, Idaho, operated by the Boise School District. Frank Church graduates roughly 150 students each semester. All of the students are considered “at risk” by the District. Issues like food insecurity and homelessness are daily struggles for many of these kids. Despite their hard work, many of these students do not walk in their graduation ceremony because they simply cannot afford the $25.00 cap and gown. You can help by donating your regalia after commencement. Collection boxes will be available at the post commencement reception until 2 p.m. Donations also will be accepted May 19-30 in the Registrar’s Office, Room 110 of the Administration Building, and in the Student Union Building near the information desk. Your donation will help provide a solution for Frank Church graduates for years to come.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Commencement Committee expresses its special appreciation to Edwards Flowers for providing the flowers for the ceremony; Kathleen Tuck and Heather Calkins, Communications and Marketing; Caile Spear for organizing the diploma cover distribution; Noah Bard of PSI and his crew for furnishing the audio/visual/lighting for the ceremony; and Shannon Reed, Ron Janeczko, and the Taco Bell Arena staff whose hard work and dedication make the ceremony run smoothly.

A special thanks goes to Ann Price, Special Lecturer, Theatre Arts, and Richard Klautsch, Professor and Department Chair, Theatre Arts, for the monumental task of reading the names of each graduate.

The color guard is provided by the Cadet Bronco Battalion, Army ROTC, Boise State University under the direction of MSG Lauifi Fa’Apouli.

City of Boise Police Pipes and Drums consists of Boise Police Officers and volunteers. They are under the direction of Sgt. Rob Gallas.

Boise Police Honor Guard members are Jared Bish, Casey Hancuff, and Mike Riley.

The Spring 2014 Commencement Committee: Marcy Harmer, Co-Chair, Office of the Provost, Mandy Nelson, Co-Chair, Registrar’s Office, Stephoney Krogel, College of Arts and Sciences, Loraine Hand, College of Business and Economics, Halleh McCullough, College of Education, Norma Kindall, College of Engineering, Dawn Ramirez, Graduate College, Robert Sundquist, College of Health Sciences, Kristof Bihari, College of Social Sciences and Public Affairs, Claudia Scott, Albertsons Library, Deborah Babbitt, Albertsons Library, Rachel Duffy, Bookstore, Jentry Walsh, Conference Services, McKay Vella, Office of the Provost, Shannon Reed, Taco Bell Arena, Lynnea Compton, Office of the Provost.

DISCLAIMER

The listing of graduates, degrees, and academic honors in the program are preliminary and subject to final degree requirement evaluation. The posting of the earned degree on the official transcript record in the Registrar’s Office remains the official testimony of possession of the degree.
COMMENCEMENT SEATING

Guests will find this diagram helpful in locating the approximate seating of the degree candidates.
